Greetings!

Here is the text of a short speech I gave at the Sanctuary Church on March 8, 2015 expressing why I have chosen to publicly support Hyung Jin Nim. (My talk starts at 1:21:00 in the youtube video but be sure to watch the entire powerful sermon.)

I'd like to express my deep appreciation to Hyung Jin Nim for this appointment.

To be honest, I often feel like I would like to escape from the human world and just live somewhere like a hermit in the forest, but then I remember that I met the returning Messiah and his bride who revealed the suffering heart of the living God, and that I had to follow. Like you, I have tried to follow, making many, many mistakes, but getting up, most of the time, and made effort to do better.

This is a challenging time for the Unification Movement. Each one of us is being asked to make serious decisions when there is conflicting and often confusing information from sources that we want to trust. Some of us may be tempted, as I have been, to "wait this one out," to just focus on our personal or family lives.

It is a turbulent time in history that few of us anticipated, with two stories being told about the current controversy between Hyung Jin Nim and the International Church Headquarters.

One narrative states that Hyung Jin Nim has been a disloyal son who has been disrespectful of True Mother, who has the sole authority as the living representative of True Parents on earth, with the guidance of her trusted advisors, to make whatever changes she feels are necessary after Father's passing.

The other narrative is that Hyung Jin Nim, as the International President and successor appointed by True Father and Mother in three crowning ceremonies, begged True Mother not to make changes to Father's words as recorded in the Cheon Seong Gyeong and other key church documents such as the Family Pledge, the Blessing Pledge, the national anthem, etc. When he declined to publicly support these changes, he was replaced as the acting president of the American church. He then moved to Pennsylvania to start a new ministry with the support of his brother Kook Jin Nim, who had also been removed from his responsibility of overseeing church finances and businesses after he insisted on more transparency and accountability at Cheon Pyeong, and warning that failure to do so could endanger True Mother.

Many difficult questions arise. Who is right? Are the changes in the Cheon Seong Gyeong and other core church documents legitimate improvements or an unacceptable altering of True Father's final words to the world? How can each of us show love and support for True Parents AND for the whole True Family? Must I choose a side? If so, how will that affect my faith, my eternal relationship with God and with brothers and sisters I've known for decades?

Thinking back to the time in the Fall of 2012 when Hyung Jin Nim came to serve as the acting American president, I remember his first action was to invite church members to meet with him in many cities around the country. In NYC, where I attended, he listened for nearly 7 hours to church members' concerns, their anguish and their complaints. I'd never seen any church leader do anything like this.

After that time, he called for more transparency and the establishment of governing church councils in each region and the nation, with the authority to make decisions and to report on church finances to brothers and sisters.

He and Yeon Ah Nim started sharing Father's words about Absolute Sex, and discussed how passages from Jesus' parables affirmed Father's teaching about the value of committed, marital love offered up to God.

I don't know how you reacted to what he was doing, but I felt like this was a long, long overdue breath of fresh air. Exactly the kinds of healthy, empowering changes that would inspire brothers and sisters to take more ownership.

And what about "Absolute Sex?" Given the crisis in marriage in virtually every country in the world, isn't this an urgently needed message that leads ultimately to Blessed Marriage? Isn't this a message desperately needed in many communities where ACLC has been active, as well as all of our communities in America?

When I heard that Hyung Jin Nim and Yeon Ah Nim had been told to stop speaking about this, I wondered, "who is ashamed of something that Father spoke about so many times?" Isn't this couple, who have a powerful joint ministry, a beautiful representation of Father's words?

Then who is saying they must shut their mouths? Who is issuing memos stating that no member should attend their church services? Who is saying members should not watch videos of their sermons? Who is trying to remove videos of their crowning by True Parents from the Internet?

There is a trend in our church towards formality that is disconcerting to many brothers and sisters I've spoken to. The words to Father's "Blessing of Glory" song have been replaced with flowery phrases of the Cheon Il Guk anthem. How can any poetic verse replace the blood-stained words of hope written by Father in prison? If Father used the term "God" in the Family Pledge that he wrote should we easily replace it with the more honorific term, "the Heavenly Parent(s)?"

Is the underlying intent of this distancing, formal language to reinforce a hierarchy where God can only be approached through "approved and authorized" sources? Authority does not come from flowery phrases or corporate memos that have been reviewed by a team of lawyers. Father taught us that the highest authority was my own God-given conscience. If that is true, we don't need to go to a palace to meet with God, we can meet God even in a cardboard shack, or in a modest church in rural Pennsylvania.

Some are saying that Hyung Jin Nim wants to demote the status of women. If that were so then why would he appoint a woman, Mrs. Erikawa, as the President of the Japanese Church? If that were true, why would his wife, Yeonah Nim, speak her own words nearly every Sunday in their joint ministry? Is there any other church leader you know who shares his pulpit in this way?

The fact that he has been saying that Father's words should not be changed is a testament to his deep convictions. Shouldn't his conscientiousness about this point be something to be grateful for and to admire? Does this diminish Mother's position as a victorious second Eve in any way? I don't think so.

The things that Hyung Jin Nim talks about ring true with me: transparency, self-governance, our responsibility and authority as tribal messiahs, sincere spirituality, unembarrassed pride about Father's teachings, and the overwhelming love and grace of God. More than that, I have strongly felt many times that Father's spirit is with him! He represents hope for the future of the Unification Movement. The sooner we embrace him the better.

Like you, my wife Miho and I have been praying for the unity and victory of Mother, Hyung Jin Nim and all of the True Children. How does the exclusion of Hyung Jin Nim from his ordained role help Mother to be more victorious in hers? Can True Mother go everywhere and solve every problem by herself? Doesn't she need her talented and yes, outspoken, sons and daughters to be active in every country in the world shaking things up for God? Of course she does.

What does it mean to be a filial son? Does it always simply mean to follow your parent's directions? If you truly loved someone and believed that their life was in danger, would you simply do what you were told or would you risk your reputation, position and everything you have to protect them?

You may not understand or agree with Hyung Jin Nim's stance, but it would be hard to describe him as taking the easy or convenient course. That at least should merit some respect and prayers that all of this will lead to the good outcome that we all desire.

How could we possibly imagine that we are really supporting Mother if we have not found a way to also support Hyung Jin Nim's success as well? Would she be happy to hear us say, "Mother, you are great, but your sons are failures?" It is not either/or. Doesn't the Principle require that mature Central Blessed families support the victory of the whole True Family? That is what I believe and feel God is asking us to do.

In conclusion I would like to share a meditation written by Miho based on a dream she had a few weeks ago:

A deep snow has fallen, making the earth into a pure white "holy ground." I imagine True Parents are praying for world peace and harmony.

We're in the third year since True Father moved to the spirit world. We were running to follow Father's big, wide foot steps. Now I cannot find where his footsteps are... I find myself alone in the forest, but suddenly I find Father standing in front of me with a big, wide smile. He says, "I did not die. Every moment I am with you. Don't feel sad. Pray hard! Father is going to answer your prayers. Open your heart. Look for truth. If you feel that a certain path is a righteous one, keep going. Don't worry."

True Parents' lives were ones of continuous sacrifice. How long do they have to go that painful way? We cannot understand how difficult their lives are.

Abonim, he wanted to talk, but couldn't. He wanted to sit down, but there was no place to sit. His most precious children have to go to the desert. They are standing on Ground Zero. True Parents are watching with tears in their eyes.

(and she continues with this reflection)

I spent many years with the True Family. I saw with my own eyes that True Parents loved, protected and taught us, as their Cain children. They put their own children away in the back. Because of the Principle, they did that.

When I joined the church, I prayed to protect the True Family with my life. We have to protect them until they gain the victory. That is true, isn't it?

More than this, we shouldn't give more sacrifice to our True Mother. She cannot visit her own children? She can't hug and kiss them? That is the greatest sadness for any mother, don't you think so?

Don't you think that the True Children could say, "I love my own mother more than anyone"? I am a True Child. I was born from her womb. I drank my mommy's milk. Nobody can love her more than I do." With tears they could share these words. Please pray about our responsibility to help the True Family succeed.

After this harsh winter, a warm spring is coming.

In my dream, True Mother was hugging the True Children and kissing their cheeks. Her tears and their tears were like a waterfall, melting a tall, thick wall. Father and Hyo Jin Nim were watching, with many tears as well. This day is coming soon. God showed me that this day is coming soon.

Miho Panzer, 2/23/2015

I believe that it is the heart of everyone here today to support the victory of True

Mother and the entire True Family and for that reason I am honored to accept Hyung Jin Nim's appointment of me as American church president. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Richard

*God's eternal providence is the kingdom on earth.
On earth He wanted to see His true Garden in bloom.
Filled with perfume of the Heart spread His glorious joy.
Such is the glory to come, crowning all of the world.
Such is the glory to come, crowning all of the world.
From last verse of Garden of Restoration.*

Greetings!

Recently Hyung Jin Nim shared about an experience he had while studying the Bible at home. Suddenly he started to smell flowers, not just one or two flowers, but the scent of a whole garden in his room.

Since this was in the middle of the winter, he called Yeonah Nim and asked her, "are you wearing any perfume or spraying the house with air freshener?" Her answer was no. He realized that his spiritual sense of smell had been opened.

I also had a similar experience on one of the Sundays that Hyung Jin Nim was giving a sermon. I suddenly started to smell the scent of True Father. I knew Father's scent because during 10 years at East Garden I was often around him.

I was very surprised that Father's scent was with Hyung Jin Nim and I couldn't stop crying because I missed Abonim so much. I felt that True Father is here right now with us!

I believe that since God wants to shed his love and grace on each one of us during this time when the Original Garden is being restored, many will have their spiritual senses opened in this way!

"After that, [Jesus] said, "I am the Groom and you are the brides." (CSG 156-224, 1966.5.25)

To my beloved sisters,

On this Easter weekend, all of us in the Unification Movement can reflect that it was built on the foundation of unspeakable offerings. The first quote is from when Father asked sisters from 777 Couples Blessing to leave their families to go out witnessing. To be honest, when I heard about such actions it was hard for me to accept that Father would ask for this kind of sacrifice, but it did help me to understand how serious he was in declaring war on Satan's world.

I remember the many times that Father spoke to you as his "brides," and told all of us brothers that we were "archangels" who should follow and support each of you as you followed the directions of your eternal "bridegroom." At the time I didn't like the idea of being called an "archangel" but then I saw how many of you were absolutely determined to go out and love the world, as Father was requesting.

Some of my elder sisters have gone out to the most dangerous countries in the world. Recently I spent several hours in a coffee shop listening spell-bound to a sister share about several months she spent in African prison cell, witnessing to a prison guard who later became the leader of his nation. After hearing such testimonies, I could agree with Father that your love for him was greater than mine.

I am sure that it must have been difficult, at the time, for True Mother to hear Father asking for this kind of sacrifice from you, and surely Father was asking her to make many such sacrifices every day.

Such times of offering are memories we should never forget. In that respect, all sisters and brothers, 'brides' and 'archangels' alike, were exalted when we gave ourselves, without reserve, to Father's direction.

Have a blessed Easter!

Richard

Greetings!

In this week's sermon Hyung Jin Nim answers the question "why did Hyung Jin Nim wait until now to express his concerns publicly?" But before you watch this eye-opening message, please take a minute to read True Father's prayer about this couple in May 2008:

Hyung-jin Moon and Yeon-ah Lee, these two, this son and daughter, a couple, are standing in front of the True Parents. At this time of transition today, this occasion is one where they can inherit authority as the representatives and inheritors who can attend to everything on behalf of True Parents. Therefore, let that realm of heart, which You were unable to experience, of blessing the son and daughter that did not Fall in Eden, be carried on again in the era of the ideal heaven of the fourth Adam and all the way to that era where we can enter a time where we can assert ourselves in liberation and complete inner freedom and govern everything centering on God. This, Father, I fervently pray.

True Parents know that it will not be easy for these two, this son and daughter, to convey the authority they inherit and hold on True Parents' behalf. At the end of this life, with little to remain, let these two offer all they can to become a representative point that can teach the people of all nations about the path they should take from this time on. I pray that you will let Hyung-jin's family show each family what it means to be a pivotal point that inherits from True Parents -- from the time of infancy and beyond the infinite years in life, so that they can inherit the kingship of the victory of the representative who is unchanging in mind and body, and the kingdom of heaven in which God can exert His autonomous right of victory, and -- as the sons and daughters of that liberated and internally emancipated heaven -- that they can personally embrace and love those children who grow up in that kingdom.

While you will enjoy the worship music, the sermon starts at 1:07.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A GOOD-FAITH AND A BAD-FAITH EFFORT

When presented with an assignment only partially accomplished, a College Dean once remarked "Don't worry, I can tell the difference between a good-faith and a bad-faith effort." She forgave the student and granted more time to finish his work. How did she know? She had wisdom, discernment and experience. Oh yes, and heart.

Three of us on the UTS Board (Chairs of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, Committee on Trustees, and Advancement Committee, respectively) are resigning today because of incredible bad-faith actions on the part of our HSAUWC USA leaders regarding commitments made just a few months ago to keep the undergraduate program in Barrytown. In fairness, this commitment, made when forcing the removal of Richard Panzer as UTS President on January 7, was not an absolute commitment on their parts, but they said they'd try. In the adverse climate between the UTS and HSAUWC administrations which has continued for almost two years now, a number of UTS Board Trustees have "hung in there" in an effort to positively influence the direction UTS heads in these uncertain times. In short, we chose to stay in the game.

Yet, when it becomes clear that those with whom one is collaborating are not being truthful, one has to evaluate whether it is ethically possible to remain engaged: a statement which is 95% true (and 5% false) is still a lie. Our dilemma has not just been one of personal integrity (as important as this is), but also whether the larger community would view our continued participation on the UTS Board (when we can no longer affect decisions that are being made about UTS) as complicit towards outcomes which are largely objectionable. So, we have decided, with deep regrets, that it is time to resign, despite our collective 25+ years of experience as UTS Trustees.

We debated whether to go quietly, as several of our colleagues have done recently, or to be more public. Through prayerful consideration, we are called to speak out. Why? Even with all of the admitted inadequacies demonstrated by the UTS administration over the past several years, those deficiencies are nothing when compared to the willful, cynical way in which the undergraduate program has been undermined by the parent church. The project had been approved by church leadership, funding commitments of approximately $15 Million (over a 7 year period) were made, not just to the UTS Board, but also to the New York State Department of Education (NYSDoE). The latter was a required pledge, to demonstrate financial stability in order to secure the NYSDoE approval for the undergraduate program. However, within weeks of Eric Holt's death in 2013 (by then Eric was both HSAUWC USA treasurer and chair of the UTS Board Finance Committee), his replacement began threatening to make, and then HSAUWC made reductions to that commitment. To their credit, the UTS Administration sought to cooperate and made significant financial cuts. Some of these cuts put UTS staff and administration at increased risk of making mistakes because fewer hands had to do more work. It does not take a rocket scientist to see that some (not all) of the problems UTS later experienced resulted from already overworked staff being given even more work. Thus, the induced financial crisis begat an administrative one.

You may also have heard about an accreditation "crisis" at UTS. The accrediting agency, MSCHE, has put UTS on probation. However, the central and largest factor in that probation is financial instability. Again, this instability was induced by HSAUWC. Anyone who questions this has only to review the timing. MSCHE made their decision AFTER the first budget cuts were made and PRIOR to discoveries of Federal financial aid problems. Simply put, there is a high likelihood that UTS WOULD NOT have been put on probation if the financial crisis had not been induced.

In the following weeks and months please prepare yourselves to read a series of well-crafted reports, perhaps sent from UTS, but in any event ghost-written by an HSAUWC USA PR team, which will persistently seek to place the blame for everything bad at UTS on the previous administration. We predict a series of notices of "tough decisions" framed with what appear to be heartfelt regrets.

You EACH will have to personally discern whether you are being told the truth or not. This takedown of the undergraduate program (and we can only hope this does not extend to the liquidation of the Barrytown campus as well) has been carefully scripted.

One observer has described this HSAUWC process as "the boiled-frog method", in which frogs are placed in cool water, with the heat gradually increased to boiling, at which point the frogs expire. Alas, frogs are cold-blooded and cannot notice the danger. As warm-blooded creatures, we can. It requires action not to suffer the frogs' fate. We encourage each of you who understand the import of this moment, to write to our leadership and, at the very least, let them know you are watching and that you CARE whether they keep their promises or not. As whistleblowers (thus removing ourselves from the game on the inside), we've done what we can to let you know what's gone on. You prayerfully need to take the next steps.

Sincerely,

Chad Hoover, Amy Cuhel-Schuckers, Katie Zahedi

Greetings!

In these confusing times, all of us are being challenged to consider more deeply such questions as: How does Heavenly Father want me to love and attend True Parents in 2015? Where does true authority come from? What is my conscience telling me?

You and I know that God can and will speak to each one of us if we ask with a sincere heart. The following video testimony from a brother in London speaks to these issues and I hope that you find it to be meaningful as well.

Urgent Vision

Also, I don't know about you, but I find the countless debates on Facebook and other sites defending or criticizing Hyung Jin Nim's sermons to be confusing, so I've tried to summarize 8 key differences in perspective between the Family Federation and the World Peace and Unification Sanctuary. I hope that you find it to be helpful.

Eight Points to Consider

World Peace and Unification Sanctuary

1. Did Mother need to be educated by True Father to fulfill her mission?

YES. Mother was raised up and educated by Father in countless ways. "The first seven years after the Holy Wedding Ceremony were the period to raise up Mother with heavenly education. During this period, Father continually prayed for this, day and night. Even Mother didn't know all the significance behind this period, but Father substantially restored the heavenly daughter, heavenly spouse and the standard of True Parents, all of which were lost by the fall." <http://www.unification.net/bif/bif-6-1.html>

2. Does Mother have authority to countermand True Father's express direction regarding holy scriptures, blessing vows and more?

NO. As the bride of Christ, True Mother should HONOR key covenants established by True Father. Additions to eight holy scriptures, including CSG, should be included in new volumes, NOT by changing content of original CSG.

3. The way we address God

God referred to as "God" or "Heavenly Father"

4. Are Divine Principle and the Bible central scriptures?

YES. The Bible and Divine Principle are the root of every aspect of Father's ministry.

5. Should we uphold True Father's message about Absolute Sex?

YES. Proudly upholds Father's message about Absolute Sex.

6. Self governance or central authority?

Establish local councils with real authority and responsibility. Local election of leaders.

7. Continue "taxation" of Japanese members?

NO. The heavy financial burden of Japanese members should end.

8. What is Hyung Jin Nim's mission and responsibility?

According to public record Hyung Jin Nim was crowned three times by True Parents as chosen successor and World President. The "crime" for which he was removed was wanting to preserve True Father's covenants and words.

Current Family Federation for World Peace

NO. Mother was not educated by True Father.

"Nobody educated me.... You cannot say that God's only begotten son educated God's only begotten daughter." Speech by True Mother, given on October 27, 2014. This statement is at the 9:20 mark. <https://vimeo.com/110821385>

YES. As "only begotten daughter of God" True Mother has authority to alter key covenants established by True Father including Family Pledge, Blessing Vows, Blessing of Glory holy song, and original CSG. These needed changes could not be accomplished while True Father was alive on the earth and had to wait until True Mother had complete authority to do so after Father's passing to the spirit world.

God referred to as "the Heavenly Parent(s)"

NO. Bible and Divine Principle are not mentioned in CIG Constitution as basic scriptures. (CIG Constitution, article 14 http://www.unification.net/oig/Cheon_II_Guk_Constitution.pdf)

NO. Embarrassed by Father's Absolute Sex message. (Hyung Jin Nim was ordered to stop talking about Absolute Sex in early 2013.)

Centralized authority, reduced transparency.

YES. Continue to "tax" Japanese members.

According to the FFWPU hierarchy Hyung Jin Nim is a disobedient son who is unfit to be successor, world Unification Movement president, or even American Unification Church President.

Greetings!

In this week's moving sermon, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim point out that True Father's Bible was worn out because he read and underlined it so many times. It serves as a guide to help us to avoid the nets of self-idolatry and deception that end up taking us further away from God. After all, we do not fight FOR the victory from our own ability, we fight FROM the victory freely shared with each one of us! May this message be as empowering for you as it was for me...

Greetings!

In Sunday's message, Hyung Jin Nim openly discusses the question of Father's sexual relationships with the "6 Marys." Until the Unification Movement reaches a principled understanding, the Unification Movement will be handicapped by a needless and faithless shame about our Founder's actions.

This is one of the "Ten Points to Consider" comparing the problematic new theological positions asserted by the current Family Federation with those of the World Peace and Unification Sanctuary.

"Thinking of this beautiful young man and woman standing here, representing Korea, the world, and furthermore the cosmos, they are the ones whom you can take pride in. They will become the pillars of our house in the future." SMM, 4/13/2008

Greetings!

On this Memorial Day weekend we reflect on the sacrifices that allowed America to be established and to survive many life-and-death challenges during our history. Many of us are reaching our "elder years," but it may be that God is calling each of us to make one more offering, to take one more stand, at this time in our lives. I recently saw a documentary about the War of Independence and was surprised to learn that a very small portion of the population took an active part in fighting for freedom. Two thirds of the people wanted to continue under a corrupt monarch's rule or were unwilling to take sides...

At the inauguration of Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim, Father said "Know that they have inherited all the foundations enabling the conditions of indemnity to be laid, inherited the authority of the representative and heir whom True Parents established with all their strength." If you haven't recently listened to Father's tearful words at that time, visit Inheritor Inauguration Ceremony.

At Sunday's heartfelt and very moving service, Hyung Jin Nim, Yeonah Nim and their children made an HISTORIC COVENANT which all Unificationists owe it to themselves to see. WHERE is Father's position at this time? Where are WE standing at this time?

The Standard of Heaven, May 24, 2015

I recently received the following testimony from a brother who makes musical instruments and uses that experience to reflect on "Choosing a Successor: An Analogy Based on My Own Life experience."

I build musical instruments for a living. For the most part I am self-taught. Each thing I learned was from hard-won experience, making mistakes, and persevering through the growth of my abilities.

A couple of years ago I took on an apprentice. The first thing I looked for in an apprentice was the proper character and aptitude. These are only the qualifications to get in the door. After that I need to see his effort, thoughtfulness and his genuine care for the work at hand.

I watch as my apprentice works through his own thought process. Sometimes I suspect a mistake coming, but I allow it for his growth. I try to shepherd him through all the stages of understanding and skill that I have gone through.

It will be my joy, one day, to see him set up his own shop and carry on the work. On that day he will have qualified himself by his own effort. No one is qualified to judge his readiness or skill in the way that I can.

As I go this course with my apprentice, I cannot help but think of True Father who earnestly looked for someone qualified to carry on his work. I can identify with his deep desire to hand off his work to someone who would value and preserve his legacy.

If True Father announced a successor it was done with the utmost seriousness. Anyone who stands against this process of inheritance is dealing our True Father the most serious hurt imaginable.

I can only imagine my own shock and dismay if somehow someone saw fit to replace the apprentice I had carefully chosen.

Finally, here is an updated link for the Ten Points to Consider. If you "vote" on each of the points, you may be surprised to see which vision of Unificationism more closely conforms to the Divine Principle that awakened each of us to the reality of the Second Coming.

Have a blessed Memorial Day observance...

Sincerely,

Richard

Jacob worked hard for that, of course, but his mother worked even harder-hundreds of times harder. She worked hard to change their attitudes, making sure they pledged repeatedly not to kill Jacob. How much rested upon Rebecca! She fulfilled a vital mission to make the restoration possible. (244:240-41, February 14, 1993)

World Scripture II, History of God's Providence, p. 471

Greetings!

At last Sunday's service, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim spoke powerfully and movingly about "Putting on the Armor of God."

"Putting on the Armor of God" 6/7/15 Service

Mother's Fateful Choice

We are having a valuable discussion about the role of women and the nature of God in the Unification Movement. Of course this discussion is taking place throughout the world. Some of it is very painful, dealing with the horrific mistreatment of women throughout history. Some of it is hopeful, as women reflect on their own gifts, identity and relationship with God.

There is one strain of thought that the world will change when women take up leadership roles in the political arena, in business, in culture and the arts, in society and so on. Of course there are many gifted and brilliant women who can contribute in these areas.

But there is another area of influence that women have that is just as, if not more, important, namely the influence of women in their families. While it is a sign of progress that women are increasingly free to pursue careers of their own, our society will suffer if women forget the powerful influence they have in their families. An instructive example is one Semitic mother who chose to exercise that influence thousands of years ago, which allowed the lineage of the Messiah to be established, thereby affecting the whole human race to this day.

In the World Scriptures II book, True Father describes Rebecca's crucial role in helping her son, Jacob, to fulfill his destiny and persuading the rest of the family to do so as well. It is clear from Father's words and the Biblical text that Rebecca has greater insight and awareness of God's providence than her husband, and she uses this insight not to elevate herself, but to help her son Jacob succeed in his mission to continue the lineage centered on God.

Father spoke countless times about two things: 1) The importance of reading his words through daily hoon dok hae and 2) the importance of lineage, with repeated references to Tamar's risking her life to bear a child from the line of Judah. I would often wonder,

"WHY is he constantly talking about this?" Well, now I understand.

I feel deep affection for Mother, knowing that she spent more than five decades of her life at the side of the human "blowtorch" known as Sun Myung Moon. Few members could keep up with him for even a few days even though most of us were half his age! She was with Father 24/7 for five decades! How impossibly challenging and frustrating that must have been at times, but she succeeded where Father's previous two wives failed.

Despite all the victories that she made together with Father, there were two more tasks that she had to complete: 1) Honoring the words and covenants of her husband after his ascension to spirit world, and 2) Upholding the lineage by giving her blessing to the youngest son and his wife, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim, whom she and Father crowned three times in very moving, heartfelt public [ceremonies\[1\]](#), thus upholding the [June, 5, 2010 declaration.\[2\]](#)

so that they can inherit the kingship of the victory of the representative who is unchanging in mind and body.

Few members know that despite previous declarations of Mother's victories as "True Mother," Father expressed concern that Mother might not be able to complete these two tasks because she was not yet in the direct dominion of God.[\[3\]](#)[\[4\]](#) Of course, even considering the possibility that Mother could fail in her responsibility is a disturbing and shocking thought. That is why I'm not surprised when I receive angry emails from some brothers and sisters.

That Mother, after so much sacrifice over many decades, is choosing to exalt her own "sinless" Han lineage over Father's,[\[5\]](#) thereby dividing the True Parents' lineage, and claiming that she did not need to meet Father to be restored, is a painful reality that I will grieve over as long as I live.[\[6\]](#)

In fact, she has done the opposite of what Father requested, when he said: "I put Mother in that position and she must attend to me as I did to the God of Night. She is like my physical body. Even if Mother goes up to that position (of the God of Day) she must know that there is the God of Night upon her. She, putting me on the top of the God of Day, must be able to attend to me as the God of Night. When it is done, everything is fully finished. If Mother does not know this, I will not go to that position."⁴

Why would Mother not lift up Father and his lineage in the way he clearly wanted? It is well known that she put a lot of trust in spiritualists, most especially Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim (Hoon Mo Nim), and still does to this day.

Father directed Hyo Nam Kim in 1998 to end her work as a medium in Cheongpyeong, in a statement that is not included in the new Cheon Seong Gyeong: "Kim Hyo-Nam! You have to make a training center like Cheongpyeong in each continent...If you fail to do that, I will drive you out of Cheongpyeong. Hoon-mo nim should stop doing this work herself..."^[7] Our community has a long history of mediums who started out well and ended up giving questionable or even negative influences.

You may ask, "if it were true that, at this late hour, Mother has failed, then what about her position in 'True Parents'? After all, without Mother, how can there be True Parents?" Obviously, that is a most serious question!

Do you not think that God is capable of providing an alternative offering, as He did in the case of the completion of His providence through the three generations of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob? After all, does it not say in the Divine Principle, "Since God predestines His Will absolutely, if the person who has been chosen to accomplish His will fails, God must continue to carry on His providence until its fulfillment, even though it may require Him to choose another person to shoulder the mission."^[8] and in the Bible, "I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass. I have purposed, and I will do it."^[9]

Even though Unification Church "palaces" and assets probably total in the billions, they are just a heap of trash when compared with the value of Father's words and lineage. I've known many wonderful brothers and sisters from over four decades of my membership in the church, but if forced to choose, I'll choose the spiritually dedicated son and his wife whom Father declared to be True Parents' "representative body" and heir. After all, who are we to question his judgment?

While waiting to understand how Heavenly Father is resolving this unprecedented situation, I'll skip the "mansions" and "palaces" on the earth and in the spirit world, and settle for a cardboard shack, or a modest church in Pennsylvania, as long as God's spirit is there. All of us, men or women, find our true value, not in power or in positions, but in exalting the word and will of God, as Father showed us throughout his incredible life, and in his final prayer on August 13, 2012, "Today, as I have returned the conclusion of the final perfection to You, Father, I know that up to this moment, I have offered my whole life to You. I am spending this time now to bring my life to its conclusion, to bring it to a close with utmost devotion, in accordance with Your Will... I have accomplished everything for this. I have completed everything. Aju!"^[10]

[1] "Thinking of this beautiful young man and woman standing here, representing Korea, the world, and furthermore the cosmos, they are the ones whom you can take pride in. They will become the pillars of our house in the future. It is my hope and wish that the dutiful way of filial children, patriots, saints and divine sons and daughters will be fulfilled in relation to them. With that hope and wish, I, as a parent, am looking upon them with a heart full of anticipation that surpasses yours. So I fervently and earnestly hope that you will offer your support so that such intentions can be quickly fulfilled. Aju." "Who is going to change the blood lineage? Not just anyone can do that. You must know that in order to do this work, I walked the way of the tearful cross." [\[1\]](#)

Greetings!

On this Father's Day 2015, I'd like to invite you to consider how we are honoring True Father's words and legacy in the essay below. But first, check out a powerful message from Hyung Jin Nim about how recent archeological research refutes concerted efforts by academic skeptics to question the historical truth of the Bible, on which the revelations of the Divine Principle are based.

God's Word of Truth

Honoring True Father's Legacy?

To put it mildly, Unificationists are living in an unexpected time of confusion. Our eyes have seen things we never imagined they would ever see. Our ears have heard things we never dreamt they would ever hear!

In the midst of the current debate in the Unification Movement regarding her youngest son Hyung Jin Nim's outspoken objections to Mother's claims, many are tempted to stay on the sidelines, thinking that this conflict in the True Family "has nothing to do with me and my family."

But there is a third party to the debate, Father. And behind him, Jesus.

Father reminded us of words spoken two thousand years ago, "Jesus said you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free!"[\[2\]](#)

At this time it is critical that we base our faith on what is true and what is based on the truth.

What do True Father and Jesus have to say that is relevant to this conflict? Or are their views no longer as important since they are "gone"?

Mother claims that she was born sinless, unlike Father who she says was not restored until he met Jesus. She further claims that "no one educated me."

On July 1, 2014 she said: "The process of changing the lineage occurred while I was in my mother's womb. This is something you have to believe... The moment when True Father succeeded Jesus' mission, when Jesus appeared to him this qualified True Father as God's only begotten son. Do you understand? This is something you have to know."[\[3\]](#)

On October 27, 2014 she said, "Nobody educated me... You cannot say that God's only begotten son educated God's only begotten daughter." [\[4\]](#)

But according to Father, Hak Ja Han was not born sinless. He initiated a process in which she could be restored during a seven year course from the position of fallen Eve. Father said that an Eve must be restored. A sinless person does not need to be restored.

"Therefore, to uproot the original sin, which he could not remove through the crucifixion, and to complete the work of physical salvation, Jesus must come again on earth. Only then will the purpose of God's work of salvation be fulfilled both spiritually and physically." [\[5\]](#)

"The first seven years after the Holy Wedding Ceremony were the period to raise up Mother with heavenly education. During this period, Father continually prayed for this, day and night. Even Mother didn't know all the significance behind this period, but Father substantially restored the heavenly daughter, heavenly spouse and the standard of True Parents, all of which were lost by the fall." [\[6\]](#)

"In transforming the lineage, unless the condition for victory is fulfilled inside Adam's bone marrow and the core of His flesh and blood, through binding God's love to the seed that will be the child in the future, God's child cannot be born. This is a logical certainty. Is this not recorded in the Bible? If so, the Bible is surely God's word." [\[7\]](#)

If Mother were born sinless, she would be the Messiah. In that case, she wouldn't have needed to meet Father. He would have needed to meet her...

But Hak Ja Han was not chosen by Jesus of Nazareth as the returning Messiah to bring the Providence to completion. He chose an Adamic figure - Sun Myung Moon.

In effect, by stating that she was born sinless and not educated by him, isn't she calling Father a liar?

If you choose to believe her, that is your decision, but you need to be clear that you are choosing to believe the opposite of what True Father spoke about these issues during nearly six decades of ministry. Good luck with your new theology and new religion...

Hak Ja Han was chosen among brides. While certainly prepared in a special way, she was nevertheless a fallen Eve who had to be raised up and restored by going "through the bone marrow" of the Messiah, the third Adam.

This should be a point of eternal pride for her, that of all women on the face of the earth, she completed the mission of restored Eve, where Father's previous two brides could not. The whole human race, on earth and in the spirit world, should be singing her praises as the victorious bride of Christ who became our True Mother.

Instead, by choosing to elevate herself above True Father, she has caused a spiritual catastrophe, whose effects cannot be underestimated. In this context, is it an accident that she chose to sit on the right side position, Father's throne, last month in Vienna and in Las Vegas?

How do you feel seeing Mother sit on Father's throne? Bewildered? Confused? Indifferent? Bothered that anyone would ask this question?

Did Mother ever do this while he was alive?

Of course not. She wouldn't have dared.

Sitting on Father's throne is a reversal of roles in the True Parents' order. It means stealing his position. She has no right to sit on the Messiah's throne.

After so much sacrifice and effort for heaven, this is a most disturbing sign, further evidence of a tragic turn of events...

Did Hyung Jin Nim Choose to Leave Korea?

Many have asked me, "why did Hyung Jin Nim choose to leave Korea and abandon his position as president of the Korean FFWPU?" He didn't. He was forced out, at Mother's direction.

On September 30, 2012, two weeks after Hyung Jin Nim prayed in the name of Heavenly Father at Father's Seonghwa on September 15, 2012 despite Mother's direction to pray in the name of "Heavenly Parents," the FFWPU of Korea removed him as president.

He was instructed to go to the U.S. to serve as President of HSA-UWC in America, which he did. There he called for the creation of local church councils with real authority to make decisions and to report transparently to brothers and sisters, quite the opposite of the new CIG constitution that he could not endorse. He and Yeonah Nim began to teach about one of Father's favorite topics, Absolute Sex, but were then told to stop.

A few months later he read in an email that he had already been fired from that position as well.

Do you think he may have intuited that his views about honoring Father's words and about the Principle being a document of liberation were not welcomed in Cheongpyeong? If so, why would he return?

Some brothers and sisters will not appreciate me bringing up these painful topics. Believe me, I wish I didn't have to write a single one of these words.

But refusing to look at what is actually happening does not lead any of us to a truthful relationship with God. Shouldn't that be the most important thing? If not, why did we join the Unification Church many years ago?

And if Father's words, covenants, position and lineage are being undermined, do we want to turn our backs away, and do nothing?

Honoring True Father's Legacy?

To serve with all your mind and devotion means giving up your life. Isn't there a saying, "Sincerity moves heaven?" Is there a limit to sincerity, an end to one's devotion? Put your life on the line and offer devotion. God will recognize the person who is ready to sacrifice his life and offer a life of devotion. CSG 994

Greetings!

In this week's Sunday Service, Hyung Jin Nim speaks powerfully about the need to have a fighting spirit in our life of faith, particularly at a time when society's moral standards are crumbling all around us, and also what we can learn from Father's course in Heungnam prison.

Yeonah Nim speaks movingly about God as the one who saves, heals and also delivers us from defeating spirits in our lives.

Fierce Courage

You will also enjoy Yeonah Nim's new children's book, "Fantabulous Froggy," which while entertaining for children, has a message for us "older kids" to think about as well!

The savior is one who pioneered the path of sacrifice, offering his life to relieve God's anguish that began with the Fall. The savior is not only living in glory. He weeps together with God's heart and is deeply concerned with bringing Satan to his knees. SMM, CSG p. 149

Greetings!

On this Independence Day weekend we remember the bravery and sacrifice of the Founders who risked their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to establish a country whose freedoms came not from government, but from our Creator. Indeed, our Founders believed that without God there is no freedom.

Courage is needed no less today than in 1776. Courage to stand up against the desecration of our nation and our faith. With the Supreme Court ruling that redefined marriage, it is clear that America has rejected any notion of respecting the Creator, or his Word. And what about our church...

Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim gave a most powerful sermon today about the age that we live in, an age in which good is called evil and evil good. You can see why Father chose this wonderful couple as True Parents' heir and successor. If you haven't watched the moving

"Fierce Courage" calligraphy

ceremony where Father appointed them you owe it to yourself to do so.

It is truly tragic that the worldwide church is compliant with efforts to erase and isolate this precious couple who have so much to offer the Unification Movement. Will you comply with directives not to watch their sermons? Especially if you are a Second Gen BC don't you want to know what a fellow 2nd Gen is doing to carry on his Father's legacy in the face of efforts to silence him?

Good Called Evil and Evil Good

I'd also like to share with you a thought-provoking essay written by a brother named Jamal Johnson that asks challenging, but important, questions.

"Is it Okay?" and Other Questions for Hak Ja Han supporters

Is it ok for mother to disobey True Father after he goes to Spiritual World?

Is it ok for mother to make amendments to the Principle, after Father said that the "last words" have already been prepared?

Is it ok for mother to dismiss the successor to True Parents, who is the only pure child of the lineage, as if his appointment and purity and other qualifications meant nothing at all to heaven?

Is it ok for mother to insist upon the changing of the Cheon Seong Geong as the required offering for Hyung Jin Nim to demonstrate unity with her? In other words, is it ok for mother to require "Hyung Jin Nim's disunity with True Father" as the required offering to "prove unity with her"?

IF HAK JA HAN requires ANYONE to disunite with True Father to prove their unity with her, then she is the one ATTEMPTING to divide True Parents. If a person is tempted to disunite with father to prove themselves to mother, then that person has allowed True Parents to be divided within themselves. Under those circumstances, people who resist that temptation are higher than the Temptress and have more authority in Cheon Il Guk than the temptress herself. She will not regain some of her previous authority until she stops requiring such an offering, from every single human being that ever existed. In the position as the widow of the True Father Sun Myung Moon, she was in an elevated position to ask every inhabitant of the cosmos to honor her husband's words. Instead she asked faithful members to surrender to traditions that the Lord of the Second advent did not authorize. Thus, she should render an apology to the entire cosmos. This is so that we can adore her once again as the mother and grandmother.

She should encourage all of the blessed families that she consecrated, under altered vows and altered tradition, to cleanse themselves by going through the original tradition blessing, that Hyung Jin Nim dutifully maintained during her tragic lapse.

She might also strengthen us by exposing the enemy within, by explaining his tactics and concepts that ensnared her. When we understand these pitfalls we will be strengthened all the more.

Heaven has no more given up on Hak Ja Han than any of us, but the Principle will remain forever, unaltered by anyone. The Principle preceded creation and it is the truth of a healthy cosmos. To alter the Principle is to hate all of creation. No one has that power. Even God is not a True God if He breaks His covenants and principle.

According to the 3 great kingships principle, the mother must deliver unto the father a son who exemplifies perfect eldersonship and original faith. We see this in the mother/son cooperation of Rebekah and Jacob. Resulting in the horizontal establishment of the Father (singular) of Israel in the three generations of Abraham Isaac and Jacob. Hak Ja Han left her son (Hyung Jin Moon) hung out to dry playing a dangerous game of chicken with him. He did not reject True Parents. He insisted on uplifting True Father where she would not. She attempted to break his heart by isolating him. But heaven ministered to him as he went chasing father where father taught him to go, into nature. Instead of his heart being broken it meandered and pondered a harsh reality. And upon a final kick from True Father from the Spiritual World he came out and broke the silence. Hak Ja Han became his greatest test of unity with his father.

Hyung Jin Nim's unity with the "True Mother" (the person) was seen in his many episodes begging her not to alter what Father had done. He did this until she left him no recourse. Hyung Jin Nim's unity with the "True Mother" (the ideal) was seen in how he made a public demonstration/condition with his children, to solidify the 3 great kingships. He did this to allow the cosmos to go beyond the frustrated point that Hak Ja Han refused to go beyond. He did this because Hak Ja Han refused to bow to the 3 great kingships.

The dutiful wife of Hyung Jin Moon, Yeon Ah Moon, did pledge her very life to accomplishing mother-son cooperation.

On April 26th 2015, Yeon Ah Moon pledged that when Her husband passes, she will lift up the 3rd Kingship and not set her will up as competition to the will of True Father. She gave us all permission to stone her if she fails. Thus, her life is to uphold the 3 great kingships and only that. Apart from upholding the 3 great Kingships, she has no life. And on May 24th Yeon Ah Moon PUT all women into the object position to God's lineage by bowing to the 3 great kingships of True Father (Sun Myung Moon, Hyung Jin Moon, & Shin Jun Moon). This is how Hyung Jin Nim showed unity with True Mother, by having Yeon Ah Moon attend that mission after Hak Ja Han vacated it.

Hyung Jin Nim's couple was never supposed to suffer. His couple was supposed to enjoy the cosmic sabbath with the rest of us. He was never supposed to place his family in this position. Their family and our families were supposed to inherit cosmic sabbath having no debt. But after Hak Ja Han's unprincipled altering of tradition, only by coming into the original covenant can we get unstuck, move forward again, and enjoy cosmic sabbath.

The meek shall inherit the earth. Even mother was meant to come back to the "original (meek) position" and exemplify service for all blessed families.

Mother must now perfect herself by June 16, 2013. Then she should return to her original position. When the mother and father attend God, they should lead a life in the position of a servant that can teach people the way of a servant in the unfallen world. They should teach individuals the path leading to perfection; they should find a nation and show the path of perfection. Sun Myung Moon - May 11, 2007

And by accepting the following...

Therefore, you have to have absolute confidence in your blessed family life. Blessed families are the most precious thing for God, Jesus and True Parents to see. The value of the blessed family is greater than the value of anything you can imagine in the universe. Nothing can compare with it, from the beginning of the creation to the very end of history. Nothing can replace it. I have established God's true lineage through the blessed families. On that basis, the entire universe has no choice but to accept and cooperate. Sun Myung Moon - December 18, 1999

... we can find power to make the world in the image of the True God and True Parents.

America is a nation in the same position as Rome. Then, at a time like this, why do I bring members of the Unification Church from Japan and all around the world to America? After Jesus died on the cross, all of the disciples focused on Rome. In the same way, we have to restore those circumstances through indemnity. We must not be chased away from here or be killed. Instead, we must be welcomed and launch a movement that will establish the heavenly nation here and offer it to God. SMM, CSG p. 1200

Greetings!

In this week's sermon, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim discuss the connections between Biblical prophecy and America's role in the world, and what is at risk as America's religious foundations are being erased. "Progressive" trends like the Supreme Court decision to mandate Gay Marriage are not really anything new, but rather a revival of the anti-Christian culture of the Greco-Roman civilization.

Statues of Roman gods crown Supreme Court Building

When such changes are institutionalized into law, the government has the legal authority to prosecute those advocating Biblical values for "hate speech." As countries abandon Biblical norms and morality they come into judgment. No country, Korea and the U.S. included, are exempt from the judgment of God. Early Christians were willing to risk persecution by facing evil. As the darkness becomes darker, the people of God must become lighter. The children of God should never become slaves of an authoritarian, immoral government. The ideal of the Father's teaching was freedom and responsibility not slavery.

On a lighter side, you'll enjoy Yeonah Nim's charming, but meaningful, second children's book "God Won't Know."

With absolute faith, you will find one position. You will find the absolute position, the place where God resides. From there everything will start to be resolved. SMM, CSG p. 160

Greetings!

In yesterday's profound Sanctuary sermon called "Deep Faith with God," Hyung Jin Nim talks about the difference between "belief" and "faith." All of us will have "dark nights of the soul" in our life of faith which are opportunities to go deeper in our understanding of God.

Instead of desperately trying to "pull the weeds" of doubt, he explains, we should GO INTO those weeds with God. Instead of being "addicts" always seeking the "spiritual highs," we should seek a complete relationship with God, which also includes the low points where a fuller experience with God can be encountered.

Deep Faith with God

During the past several weeks I have been thinking about the difference between the "Messiah I want" vs. the challenges of understanding and accepting "The Messiah as he really is," which led to the following essay....

The Messiah You Want vs. the Messiah You Get

Let's do a thought experiment. Imagine there were an election to choose the Messiah. Who would win? The Dalai Lama? Or perhaps Pope Francis? Both seem to exemplify admirable qualities such as humility and kindness. Pope Francis has even jumped on the global warming bandwagon, so wouldn't he likely get more votes? Wouldn't he receive the support of even secular people who believe global government intervention is urgently needed to solve "climate change," the greatest "crisis" of our age?

What about the Messiah believed in by Christians around the world? Jesus had a way of stirring up opposition with such statements as, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee God's coming wrath?" (Luke 3:7) If he had hired a PR team, they would surely have advised him to tone down the rhetoric.

We all know, though, that the Messiah is NOT elected, that he comes not to meet our expectations, but to lead us out of Satan's domination into the freedom of God's world, which is not a quick stroll in the park...

What about the Lord of the Second Advent believed in by Unificationists around the world? Sun Myung Moon was not an easy man to follow. He relentlessly pushed himself, and consequently those around him, to extreme limits. While it is true that he had a sensitive and poetic side, he could be extremely demanding, and often made broad sweeping statements that could be labeled as dogmatic and intolerant.

American women think of their organs as belonging to them. As a result, they act freely and do whatever they want with them. This is also the case for the men. But you are only the caretaker of your sexual organ. In other words, the caretakers are passing themselves off as the owners.

I ask the women: When did you meet the owner of your sexual organ? The owner is your husband. And you men: Do yours belong to you? Then what is marriage? Through marriage men and women are to find the owners of their sexual organs...If man and woman are meant to marry among themselves, how can there be gays or lesbians? They will cease to exist. In less than a century, they will be gone in one generation. In light of this, should you get married or not? Why get married? Because this is the way it is, you need to get married. You must absolutely get married. (162-50, 1987.3.22) CSG 1750-51

In Father's later years, he started speaking about the "God of Day" and the "God of Night," concepts which were not so easy to understand. He directed all members to hear a new series of lectures called the "Original Substance of the Divine Principle" that also had challenging content. After Father's passing these are no longer being taught much, but aren't they still worth our attention?

Adam

God's son and God's body

Eve

God's daughter and God's partner (Adam's wife)

Adam and Eve's marriage is God's marriage.
(Appearance of the substantial God)
Adam and Eve's first love is God's first love.

Until now, God couldn't give love substantially while in a body.
With the appearance of the True Parents, He was finally able to.

OSDP slide- God's Body and God's Partner

In this OSDP slide (1), Adam is portrayed as "God's body" and Eve is portrayed as "God's partner," the idea being that when Adam makes love to his wife, God is experiencing the act of love from a male position with Eve as his "wife."

This is challenging content to understand, both from the perspective of the dual characteristics of God, which include both masculine and feminine elements, and from the perspective of many westerners who could find it sexist that God be described as being in a "male" position. But this was Father's teaching in the final stage of his life.

There are at least three different ways to respond. We could think:

- 1) Father is an old-world sexist;
- 2) Father was getting old and even perhaps somewhat senile; or
- 3) Father knows more about God than I do and I need to prayerfully make effort to understand his meaning.

UTS professor Dr. Andrew Wilson, has given a presentation about Hyung Jin Nim's disagreements with Mother's "Only Begotten Daughter" declarations.(2)

While much of what he says seems reasonable, in one of the concluding slides, "True Children Also Carry Their Cross," he discusses the tasks that must be faced by the True Children, "including to fully respect their natural mothers as wise and capable parents."

True Children Also Carry Their Cross

- Childhood bereft of natural parental love
- The heir sacrifices with the thought, "Someday I will be the king."
- Recover what their parents were unable to do...
- Including to fully respect their natural mothers as wise and capable parents
 - Jesus and Mary
 - Father and his mother
 - Hyung-jin Moon and True Mother

Dr. Wilson "Only Begotten Daughter" presentation, 5/28/15

As examples, Dr. Wilson cites Jesus' relationship with his mother, Mary, and in particular Jesus' objection to her asking him to change water into wine at the marriage feast in Cana:

When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine" and Jesus replied, "O Woman, what has this to do with me? My hour has not yet come." John 2:1-11

Dr. Wilson gives this as an example of how the son, Jesus, failed to fully respect his natural mother as a "wise and capable parent." What does True Father say about this event?

When we took at the Principle of Creation, God first created Adam and then created Eve centering on Adam. Therefore, Mary should have supported her son and should have looked for a bride for him. Mary should have done this, not only Jesus. Mary had to support Jesus and had to look for the bride.

In this respect, we can understand that Mary did not fulfill her responsibility. Mary told Jesus at the marriage in Cana in Galilee that they had run out of wine, to which Jesus replied, "Woman, what have you to do with me?" Jesus was saying, what does the other man's marriage have to do with me? In other words, the time for Jesus to have a wife had come and he was asking Mary why she had not realized that. Mary did not fulfill her responsibility. (3)

In Dr. Wilson's view, it is Jesus who must repent for not understanding that his mother is a "wise and capable parent," but in Father's view, it is his mother, Mary, who must repent for not understanding that her son is there to accomplish God's will for humanity and to support his mission she must help him find a suitable bride.

Dr. Wilson also describes Father's attitude towards his own Mother, Hoong Mo Nim, as in need of improvement. Instead of his mother failing to understand his messianic mission, it is Sun Myung Moon who failed to understand his mother's "wise and capable" viewpoint and should have changed his perspective.

This is a quite amazing re-interpretation of the Divine Principle. Instead of our needing to repent and to learn from the Messiah, it is the Messiah who needs to repent.

As baffling as that may be, the 3 pairs Dr. Wilson has chosen are instructive. Just as Mary should have done more to understand and support her son Jesus in his mission, and Hoong Mo Nim could have helped her son in his responsibility, wouldn't it be wonderful if Mother urged all brothers and sisters around the world to listen to her youngest son's sermons, out of awareness of, and pride in, his authentic calling and anointing to teach and proclaim the word of God?

Dr. Wilson concludes his presentation by saying that recovering gender balance and God "find(ing) Her voice in womankind" is the "basis for world peace" and that "it is the women who can bring peace between the fighting and conflicting men." (4)

Understand True Parents' Victory

- True Mother on earth and True Father in heaven:
Opportunity to recover gender balance
- Heavenly Father → Heavenly Parent:
Completing God's image and likeness, so that God can find Her voice in womankind
- Basis for world peace

Dr. Wilson "Only Begotten Daughter" presentation, 5/28/15

Respect between the sexes is a laudable goal, but the deeper problem for both men and women is that we have lost God's words, heart and lineage and need to re-graft into those through the Messiah. Sinful men uniting with sinful women does not solve the human condition or bring about "world peace."

If Mother on earth were united with True Father in the spirit world that WOULD be a victory for true "gender balance," but sadly we see that Mother has strongly asserted that "nobody educated me," and that it would diminish her position as "only begotten daughter" to have been educated by True Father, insisting that we "cannot say" she was educated by him. She didn't learn anything from her husband during more than five decades at his side? Really?

Nobody educated me... You cannot say that God's only begotten son educated God's only begotten daughter. (5)

Dr. Wilson's is just one of many troubling theological expressions arising from Mother's declarations after Father's passing. While fascinating to study, we shouldn't delude ourselves that these are not a radical departure from Father's teachings throughout his six decades of ministry.

ALL of us, men and women alike, find our true, God-given selves through repentance and uniting with the Messiah, not the other way around.

If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. 1 John 1:10

Go ahead and repent from the bottom of your heart. If you don't, you cannot receive the inheritance from the Messiah. You cannot inherit the Kingdom of God from the True Parents. That kind of noble tradition of sacrifice is beautiful. In following such a tradition, we can swallow the satanic world. Rev. Sun

*"Keep your heart with all vigilance; for from it flow the springs of life."
Proverbs 4:23*

Greetings!

In Sunday's Sanctuary sermon, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim bluntly discuss how to resolve the contradictions in America as a nation and the contradictions in our own lives. The unique promise of America as a nation founded upon God-given freedoms is endangered by policies and a culture that ignore God-given values and seek to impose a godless worldview that can never bring about the promised happiness and fulfillment.

Isn't it refreshing to have a Unificationist leader who is unafraid to speak the truth without fear? Instead of spouting politically correct platitudes that gloss over the real issues in our nation and in our lives?

On the outside most of us look like we're doing fine, but like a glacier there is a strong current of muddy water under the surface threatening to drag us down. This is our "unconscious theology," often full of worry and anxiety.

The only solution is to guard our deepest heart and affections. We forget or are unaware that the Holy Spirit is praying for us and will change us if we allow ourselves to abide in (the returning) Christ. Let God "design" your "garden!"

Sanctuary Service 7/26/2015

Also, I thought you would be interested to read the following thought-provoking Facebook post from a sister answering a common question about why is Hyung Jin Nim "attacking True Mother?"

Some brothers and sisters are asking me why is Hyung Jin Nim attacking his own mother? Others are asking why is he attacking True Mother?

Hyung Jin Nim as far as I understand is standing in two positions. One. He is one of the sons of his own biological mother. Two. He is the inheritor of True Father's authority.

In position one as a son, he talks about how he loves her mother. In some of his speeches he tells how close he is to his mother. He can even enter his mother's room to greet her even if his mother tells him not to enter because she is not done putting on her clothes yet! When I heard this i just smiled and thought what a lovely son he is, thinking that he is already a mature man at that time. How lovely a son he is.

But in position two, he has to base his speech on the Word which is absolute, eternal and unchanging. You know God's words are straightforward and do not give preferences according to position. God's Words are based on absolute principles. Bases on these Principles, he speaks really hard on True Mother.

You know in the time of Jesus Christ, when his mother Mary, his own biological mother, fails to do what God wishes, Jesus called her 'Woman, what have you do to with me?' and also when Peter, his disciple, suggested to him something that is not God's Will he said to Peter, 'Get behind me, satan,' and then when the religious leaders could not open their spiritual eyes and ears to discern God's Will, Jesus called them, 'you brood of vipers.'

Jesus Christ was very hard to those who cannot discern God's wishes. I know True Father was also the same. Father spoke without inhibition as long as he proclaimed God's Absolute Will. So is Hyung Jin Nim. Aju.

"Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh." Gen 2:24

"You World Leaders gathered here tonight, please learn this truth and take it back to your countries. If you start a campaign to secure absolute sex in your country, your families and your nation will go straight to Heaven." Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon, "In Search of the Origin of the Universe." Washington, DC. 1996

WARNING: The following email contains information about Cheol-tae Seong, translated into English as "Absolute Sex," which the Family Federation directed should no longer be discussed by the World Unification Church president in early 2013.

Greetings!

Some of you may remember a major speech that True Father gave to world leaders in 1996, where he said, "If you start a campaign to secure absolute sex in your country, your families and your nation will go straight to heaven."

In a talk given to religious leaders attending an OSDP conference in December 2012, Hyung Jin Nim speaks with sincerity and heart about his struggles after Father passed to the spirit world, especially since he'd had no dreams or visions about Father. He shares that finally on December 5, Father appeared to him in a dream, speaking strongly about "Cheol-tae Seong," which is translated into English as "Absolute Sex."

12-2012 OSDP Conference

Hyung Jin Nim shares with the hundreds of pastors and leaders from around the nation who were gathered that "Absolute (Good) Sex" leading to committed sexual intimacy between husband and wife is the core of Father's teaching and the gift that God intended for all of us from the very beginning.

Rev. Hyung Jin Moon Speech at Dec. 15, 2012 OSDP Conference

He discusses the tragic reality that those advocating "free" uncommitted sex (that leads to disease, distrust between men and women, fatherless homes and broken families) are unashamedly bold in spreading their "bad sex" message. Even though God created sexual intimacy, in this world Satan successfully pretends to be its owner. We need to lose our (fallen) shame to speak the truth about this central and beautiful part of life.

Here is a THOUGHT EXPERIMENT: how would the world be different if Hyung Jin Nim had been supported when he called for an "Absolute Good Sex" movement in America? If the ACLC leaders and Unificationists he spoke to in 2012 and indeed the entire Unification Movement unashamedly taught about Absolute(ly) Good Sex in communities throughout America and around the world during the past 3 years? Would the Unification Movement be different now, in 2015? How might America and the world be different?

I know you will thoroughly enjoy watching Hyung Jin Nim's talk and look forward to hearing your thoughts in the coming days.

The Sanctuary Church received a notification today from the YouTube Legal Support Team that HSAUWC lawyers have filed a trademark complaint against Hyung Jin Nim's videos on YouTube. The complaint is that the videos display the "12 Gate symbol." The intention is to force the removal of all of Hyung Jin Nim's sermons from the Internet.

Another sad example of HSAUWC's contempt for free speech. Having failed to silence Hyung Jin Nim through firing him from the position to which he was appointed three times by True Parents, HSAUWC's leaders now utilize legal tactics so that no one throughout the world will be able to watch his sermons on the Internet.

Whether you are a supporter of Hyung Jin Nim's efforts to prevent the removal of True Father's words, covenants and authority, or you disagree with him, I hope that you agree that freedom of conscience and freedom of speech are important principles that should be part of Cheong Il Guk.

I invite you to contact the leaders of HSAUWC to express your views about this legal action and to let me know of your views as well.

Sincerely,

Richard

"Do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink:' or 'What shall we wear?' For the Gentiles seek all these things; and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well." Matthew 6.31-33

Greetings!

Thanks to many brothers and sisters who have written me regarding the Family Federation's (aka HSAUWC's) attempt to use a trademark complaint against Hyung Jin Nim's videos on YouTube to silence his ministry. As of 12pm last night, none of the videos can be seen on the Sanctuary Youtube channel. "Congratulations" to HSAUWC, which claimed it was ceasing all lawsuits...

This account has been suspended due to a Trademark claim by a third party.

In case you didn't read my last email, the complaint is that the videos display the "12 Gate Unification symbol," designed by Father when he launched his ministry more than 6 decades ago. HSA lawyers contend this is the "property" of HSAUWC, which stopped using this symbol two years ago. Now HSAUWC's leaders don't want anyone else to use it either.

Having redacted Father's blessing vows, the Family Pledge, the Cheong Seong Geong, and the national Cheon Il Guk anthem, now they are censoring this historic symbol of Unificationism as well, using this as a weapon to force the removal of all of Hyung Jin Nim's sermons from Youtube.

In his Sunday Sermon (8/2/15) we can see a different attitude. For him, this symbol is not a piece of "property," but rather a deeply meaningful expression of his Father's ministry. Some of you may remember a brilliant sermon he gave on "Sacred Geometry: The Secret of the Unification Church Logo" more than 4 years ago, in 2011.

Who "owns" Father's words and symbols? Of course it belongs to the people who love those the most. Does Hyung Jin Nim have the right to use them? As recorded in the inauguration/transfer of authority ceremony on April 18, 2008, HSAUWC's Founder passed the rights to use all the words and symbols of his ministry to his youngest son, as the heir of his ministry, not to use for his own benefit, but to spread throughout the world.

Hyung Jin Nim says that NOTHING will stop him from spreading Father's teachings. HSAUWC can sue him all it wants. He doesn't own the house he lives in. He doesn't own the Sanctuary church building. I've noticed that he does, however, own an old sleeping bag which I've seen him repairing several times...

The term "Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for the words "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which are written in the calligraphy on a scroll presented to him by True Father. The purpose of this organization is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon," which sadly have been under attack since he passed away nearly three years ago.

To conclude, I would like to express my gratitude to current FFWPU/HSAUWC leaders for so clearly revealing their real character. Ironical that at the very time they are waging a nationwide "peace campaign" with a "peace" rally at the UN and proclaiming the slogan "Forgive, Love, Unite," they unleash their legal attack dogs to silence the Founder's youngest son and heir. But like every "Korean drama," the story is not over...

May God bless you and your families.

Sincerely,

Richard

Greetings!

Thanks again to the dozens of brothers and sisters who have written me regarding the Family Federation's (aka HSAUWC's) attempt to use a trademark complaint against Hyung Jin Nim's videos on YouTube to silence his ministry. Here are two emails that represent the sentiments of many of the writers:

I was speechless when I heard about the lawsuit. It represented so many levels of immaturity, lack of basic insight into human nature, fallen nature, repeating of bad Christian history, etc., that it just about blew my circuits.

Thank you for sharing the latest re: the legal action from the church against Hyung-Jin Nim. My understanding is that True Mother said there should be no more lawsuits. What gives? The church is not even using the logo. It amazes me that the church would go so far to oppose what HYJN is doing. I will be taking a closer look at this.

While none of the videos can be seen on the Sanctuary Youtube channel, here is the most recent censored sermon, "Our Strength Is in the Lord" where Hyung Jin Nm explores the historical context and worldview of True Father's ministry without which we cannot understand Father's teachings, and Yeonah Nim discusses the difference between Cain-type nations where "might makes right" which use brute force to subjugate people and the nations established by God. Cheon Il Guk means "2 becoming 1" under God's spirit, beautifully expressed in the original national CIG anthem written by Father when he was released from prison.

Our Strength Is in the Lord - August 2, 2015 - Rev. Hyung Jin Moon

Here are two sites where Sanctuary Sermon videos can be viewed and downloaded. <https://vimeo.com/wpus>. Since many of the videos can also be seen on the Sanctuary Russia Youtube Channel, it may be that there is currently more religious freedom for Unificationists in that formerly Communist country, than in the USA. (Also, since there are Russian subtitles you can brush up on another foreign language...)

If HSA tries again to shut down Hyung Jin Nim's sermons or you want to listen to them while running or working out, you can always listen to the them at Sanctuary Sermon Podcasts.

Yesterday I received the following email about Hyung Jin Nim's right to use the 12 gate Unification symbol which the Family Federation abandoned two years ago.

Hyung Jin Nim, more than anyone (with the possible exception of TF), has popularized the well-known Twelve Gate symbol, especially since he started wearing the pendant around his neck years ago. Very few (if any) other members of the extended Moon family, or even the elder members from Korea for that matter, are ever seen wearing that symbol on their person, not even a ring! Have you noticed this?

Besides the attorney who is pressing action, who else exactly is behind this move. I doubt that Hak Ja Han would take such an initiative because she has reportedly called for a ceasing and dropping of all lawsuits.

Has our legal system become so corrupted that people who have enough money now feel that they can use the system to exert their arbitrary will upon others?

If Pastor Moon is deemed unqualified to use his Twelve Gate symbol, then none of us should feel so entitled to wear it!

What more needs to be said?

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard

"The land should receive the title of divine land, which has dampened with God's blood and tears. This is where the heavenly kingdom will unfold." Rev. Sun Myung Moon, CSG 2093

Greetings!

At Sunday's historic Sanctuary Service, reports were given about current Family Federation attempts to use their lawyers and worldwide resources to isolate and undermine Hyung Jin Nim's and Yeonah Nim's ministry. Ironically their attempts are backfiring and increasing brothers and sisters' interest to learn more about his efforts and the real reasons for his removal from his position as World President of the Unification Movement.

Hyung Jin Nim gave a profound, tearful sermon about the meaning of wearing sackcloth in the Bible and related that to the mourning that many of us feel as the Family Federation abandons and "corrects" Father's words and covenants.

"Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned his son many days." Gen 37:33

Sackcloth and Ashes- Aug. 9, 2015 Sanctuary Service

In a moving ceremony, a "Tear of Blood" sackcloth is placed over the Unification symbol. Hyung Jin Nim explains represents that the "Tear of Blood" sackcloth represents the heart of God who had to wait thousands of years for a true object partner and the sorrow of True Father as he has to witness betrayal from those he trusted and suffered for.

Greetings!

In reading a recent Facebook post discussing Hyung Jin Nim's strong public disagreements with Mother, I notice two main themes :

- 1) It is an article of faith that True Mother is inseparable from True Father in the spirit world.
- 2) Even though Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim were crowned as the rightful heirs, "the problem has been the timing between receiving the crown and ascending the throne. There has been impatience. Bad judgment has been exercised."

I think it's a huge misunderstanding to think that Hyung Jin Nim's motive is "impatience" or a "hunger for power." He sincerely believes that True Father's words, covenants, etc. do not need "correction" any more than Jesus' words do.

Hyung Jin Nim is trying to save his mother from committing what he believes is a grave sin, to edit the words of the Messiah. You may think he is making a big deal out of nothing, but I see nothing but a conscientious heart behind his actions.

Sackcloth and Ashes- Aug. 9, 2015 Sanctuary Service

In case you haven't seen this, here is an unofficial statement by Mrs. Hatsue Erikawa, President of Sanctuary Church- Japan explaining the steps leading to her resignation from the Family Federation.

After TF passed in 2012, too many of TF words and traditions were changed by TM. Therefore, I struggled thinking that TM was not uniting with TF. In reality many people around TM violated three major spiritual laws. All of a sudden Hyung Jin broke the silence and started to speak, Jan. 18 this year. I myself experienced a lot of what Hyung Jin was talking about. I myself can testify to the truth.

Feb 19, I met with TM after some time and pleaded with her not to oppose Hyung Jin. I want to see TM and the successor Hyung Jin to become one. After going back to Japan, there was spiritual guidance given (Young Jin). He said for the third Fdn day Hyung Jin should come to TM, and together they have to manage and control everything. There is no one but you who can plead with Hyung Jin and convince him to come to TM. After that, Feb 27, I met with Hyung Jin and Kook Jin. However March 1, I was appointed by Hyung Jin as pres of SC church in Japan. That was totally unexpected. Why did I receive his appointment? I felt it was TF's wish for me to do so when I witnessed Hyung Jin inheriting TFs will.

From 2008 to 2012 I had the opportunity to work with Hyung Jin in Korea. When I met him again on March 1, Hyung Jin had grown up a lot and looked like TF.

When I landed at Narita airport in Japan, the UC pres. of Japan grabbed me and brought me to Korea and I had an opportunity to report to TM. She said I understand what your feeling but I would like to use you. Because I really wanted TM and Hyung Jin to become one centered on TF and felt TF was wishing for that, I wanted to receive TM appointment as co pres. of UPF.

TM told me not to worry about TC. When the country is restored by 2020 the children will come back naturally. So I decided to devote myself to fight communism and restore the country. However the leadership of my organization had already fallen to satan. The leaders were corrupt. Time had passed without me being able to do anything because of the leaders.

Since the middle of June SW started to move through the meeting of people, having TF dreams, and hearing his voice. Not just by myself but by others too. I came to realize that it is time to separate good from evil and build a foundation of goodness. Ultimately I had a dream of TF and he told me that heavenly fortune has left UC. You have to accept heavenly fortune. Without Heavenly fortune Japan will perish. Through prayer I decided to resign from UC and work with TF representative and heir to start building Gods nation and Gods righteousness.

There may be a difficult path waiting for me, but I do not wish to live like our current leaders who are living a secure life on the back of broken members. Link to statement in Japanese.

For God has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of sound mind. 2 Timothy 1:7

If you want to enter the realm of grace where you can be liberated from the servant's position as God's son, you be able to feel joyful when losing your life. Only those who have such a heart can go beyond the servant's position and enter the son's position.
CSG, p. 118

Greetings!

In Sunday's powerful sermon, "Abolishing Fear through Christ," Hyung Jin Nim discusses how anxiety and fear are "gifts" from Satan to keep us separated from God.

Whether it be health, relationship, financial or spiritual difficulties, he advises, "embrace the valleys! Christ is the lily of the valley. That is where you will find God! Ask God, what is YOUR purpose in this difficulty, ? Then Heavenly Father will show HIS purpose." To watch this uplifting sermon, visit "Abolishing Fear through Christ."

In the sermon, Hyung Jin Nim also refers to how the mission of True Parents are to be completed in three generations, as Father declared when he declared the 3 kingships.

So He said to him, "Bring Me a three year old heifer, and a three year old female goat, and a three year old ram, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon." Then he brought all these to Him and cut them in two, and laid each half opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds. The birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, and Abram drove them away. As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram; and lo, a dread and great darkness fell upon him. Then the Lord said to Abram, "Know of a surety that your descendants will be sojourners in a land that is not theirs, and will be slaves there, and they will be oppressed for four hundred years." Genesis 15:9-11

The Three Generations Kingship

Restoration happens in levels and phases. Many central figures were successful at one level, but failed when asked to do additional levels. Abraham, Sarah, Mary, Elizabeth, and Moses come to mind. Failing at a providential level does not make you a bad person, it means a longer, more difficult course for God.

Yes, there are many quotes where Father praised Mother as having fulfilled her position. And she did. And we all (certainly I do) feel intense (and eternal) gratitude to Mother for persevering in a most difficult course for five decades at the side of a man driven to push himself, and those around him, to the point of exhaustion to accomplish the fulfillment of God's providence on earth.

There is a belief that Mother can do no wrong since she and Father are "totally united," but did you know that Father expressed concern about whether Mother would fulfill an additional responsibility after his passing on to the spirit world?

The Substantial God / God incarnate attends to the God of Night. I put Mother in that position and she must attend to me as I did to the God of Night. She is like my physical body. Even if Mother goes up to that position (of the God of Day) she must know that there is the God of Night upon her. She, putting me on the top of the God of Day, must be able to attend to me as the God of Night. When it is done, everything is fully finished. If Mother does not know this, I will not go to that position. True Father, April 12, 2011

Father must have known that he would be transitioning to the spirit world in the near future. Just like the "Father of Faith," Abraham, who made the most strenuous sacrifices of the heifer and the ram, Father, after his nearly 70 years of absolute offering to liberate the heart of God, "fell asleep," by departing to the spirit world three years ago, leaving the sacrifice of the turtledove and the young pigeon to be completed by Mother.

Just as God is described in the Old Testament as the God of "Abraham, Isaac and Jacob," Father foresaw the need for the mission of True Parents to be continued in three generations, and as the fulfillment of the three great kingships that are spoken of in the Family Pledge.

In the April, 18, 2008 Inauguration/Transition of Authority ceremony, Father made it crystal clear whom he was appointing to lead our movement as his second generation heir, which he expressed in the present tense, and even the specific grandson intended to lead in the third generation. He also predicted that the course of Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim would be difficult and that it would "not be easy for these two, this son and daughter, to teach the authority that they inherit and hold on behalf of True Parents." In other words, Father predicted that many would question and doubt that they had this authority at all. Here are some key quotes from the Inauguration/Transition of Authority ceremony, which I encourage you to check out for yourself!

Know that they [Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim] have inherited all the foundations enabling the conditions of indemnity to be laid, inherited the authority of the representative and heir whom True Parents established with all their strength, and inherited True Parents' altar of victory...

At this time of transition today, this occasion is one where they can inherit the authority as the representatives and heirs who can attend to everything on behalf of True Parents

True Parents know that it will not be easy for these two, this son and daughter, to teach the authority that they inherit and hold on behalf of True Parents.

At the end of this life, with little to remain, let these two offer all they can to become a representative point that can teach the people of all nations about the path they should take from this time on... In terms of three generations, True Parents, the mother and father [Yeonah Nim and Hyung Jin Nim], and the Unification Church should be connected in one heart centering on this little child called Shin-joon. Everything that is related should begin from this child, and in going beyond the pass of the realm of the heart of the fourth Adam in the new age.

Hyung Jin Nim Inauguration and Transition of Authority Ceremony 4/18/2008

Thus, Father declared that the mission of True Parents should be continued in three generations, with Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim leading in the second generation and their son Shin-Joon, in the third, just as in the viewpoint of the Old Testament providence, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were viewed as one single generation in completing the Foundation of Faith for the Messiah to appear.

Some have been saying that even though Hyung Jin Nim was appointed as the heir and successor, he is too young and immature, but Father answered this concern when he stated: No matter how young or youthful the heir is, he is the one who will supervise and control. Likewise, when the inheritance is passed on, it does not matter who is better or worse. When Father hands down this authority in the future, even if that heir is crippled, people must receive the Blessing from that person. That time will come. Blessing and Ideal Family I Chapter 4, Section I

Hyung Jin Nim is not crippled, but many still assert that he is "too young" to be the leader of the Unification Movement. For this reason perhaps, Father issued a declaration in 2010 that anyone who opposes this appointment is the "heretic and the destroyer."

Did Mother accomplish offering the "turtledove" and the "young pigeon" by offering up her five decades of suffering after his ascension and testifying to Father and lifting him up as her beloved savior and husband, as well as supporting his lineage? Tragically, there are indications that the answer is "no."

Hyung Jin Nim was said to be rebellious, disobedient, and lacking filial piety because he would not go along with redacting Father's words and covenants. Imagine if the followers of Jesus had decided to edit out the passages where Jesus called the Pharisees a "brood of vipers" and the passage where he called Peter "Satan" for opposing the unfolding providence of the cross. Would Christians today prefer such an "airbrushed" Bible? If not, why should Unificationists today welcome a Cheong Seong Gyeong where many of the passages where Father harshly chastises church leaders have been removed? Since both Jesus and Father forgave the leaders they just chastised, aren't these the most hopeful passages since they offer all of us hope that we can be forgiven too after all of our trespasses?

As the heir and "resident body" of True Parents, Hyung Jin Nim was bringing new energy and reforms to the Unification Movement in Korea and Japan from 2009 - 2011.

Hyung Jin Nim and Kook Jin Nim started to reduce the financial burdens of Japanese members as a step towards freeing them completely from responsibility to support the Korean churches, which were now being required to be self-sufficient or to close down. They called for an audit of Cheong Pyeong. (Had this been done, there would be no need for the Korean government to investigate Cheong Pyeong or for ongoing efforts to recover hundreds of millions of dollars in the possession of Hyo Nam Kim and her husband.)

Positive front-page stories about the work of Hyung Jin Nim and Kook Jin Nim, who proudly testified to their father as the returning Messiah, appeared in leading Korean newspapers and magazines. When Hyung Jin Nim came to lead the American church from 2012 - 2013, he called for transparent reporting and local elections of leaders and even of regional church leaders. He gave fascinating sermons about the connection of Father's Absolute Sex teaching and Jesus' parables.

We finally had a True Child who was truly serious about leading a spiritual, principled life both personally and in his marriage. He was PROUD of his father's teaching and found innovative ways to share that. He was appointed and anointed by True Parents THREE TIMES, but instead of celebrating Hyung Jin Nim's contributions and accomplishments, the Family Federation FIRED him from his position as President of the church in Korea in 2011 and from his position as President of the American church in 2013. Members were instructed NOT TO LISTEN to his sermons. Why???

Sadly, his rejection by the Family Federation hierarchy for not wanting to hawk the "new, improved" Cheong Seong Gyeong or to "edit" his father's teachings and covenants, may lead the Unification Movement into a period of judgment, instead of blessing.

Ultimately, each one of us has to confirm who is the rightful heir and leader of the Unification Movement. Don't believe me. Don't believe the lawyer-reviewed-and-approved press releases of the Family Federation.

All of Biblical history can be described as an effort to re-establish God's unfallen lineage on earth. There is a belief that the foundation of the Unification Movement is enough to carry on True Parents' legacy to the world. I believe this is a sadly erroneous belief. The Unification Church aka Family Federation and other organizations were created to restore the failure of Christianity to welcome the returning messiah. In that sense they are restorational and foundational in purpose. In no way can they possibly take the place of the Messiah's lineage, or the heir/successor/representative body that he appointed in his last years on earth to carry on his work.

Yes, Hyung Jin Nim speaks strongly. So did his father. The Bible says that the word of God is like a "two-edged sword."

You stupid idiots (Korean: ba-bo)! What does a 'stupid idiot' mean? We see them and have to deal with them. We have to move beyond that. There's no other way. It is with that content that I spoke of the Cheon Seong Gyeong or the Pyeong Hwa Shin Gyeong (Peace Messages); they don't contain any of my personal feelings. That's why I'm telling you not to mix in any other words into it. If I said 'shit' then it's 'shit', if I said 'fist' then it should read 'fist'. I will be the one to untangle that. I will say, 'they couldn't change it around carelessly because it's the most precious thing.' It is accomplished with these words. It's very simple. (596-57, 2008. 8. 17, Cheon Jeong Goong)

Do you want an "air-brushed" Messiah, or the real one, who spoke harshly at times and then forgave the ones he just condemned?

Whenever I drive nearly two hours to go to the World Peace and Unification Sanctuary in Pennsylvania, the presence of the Holy Spirit is palpable and evident to me in a way that I haven't felt at FFWPU events for many years. I feel God's spirit like I did when I first joined the church over 40 years ago. Underlying the admittedly strong words is a subtext of love for God and love from God. Many others will tell you the same thing.

Given the importance of discerning what God's will actually is for those of us who have spent decades of our lives in the Unification community, I would urge you to take a Sunday drive to the beautiful Poconos mountains in Pennsylvania, and find out for yourself.

And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. Gen 1:28

If people raise fish for a living instead of building big ranches, there will be no problem in feeding a single household with just fifty pyung of land. You can draw up as much sea water as you like to the top of a high mountain. If there isn't enough, you can add some salt water to adjust the saltiness. You can do that as much as you like. Greetings!

In Sunday's sermon, "Building the Real CIG"

Hyung Jin Nim discusses how developing a real relationship with nature is an essential part of knowing God and building God's kingdom on earth. Cheon Il Guk is made up of free and responsible citizens, not "slaves" who are indebted to, or indoctrinated by, government. Just as Father expressed confidence to walk into any environment and find a way not only to survive, but to help others to do so, we can be prepared for the challenging times that Father often predicted and trained us for! Just like many biblical figures, we can relate more deeply to the word of God (debar) in the "midbar," or wilderness.

Hyung Jin Nim shares about what he learned fishing with Father, hunting in Alaska, and in the wilderness of the Pantanal in South America.

Yeonah Nim explains about her challenges to become more transparent. Satan creates anxiety where there is a part of our lives that we are hiding. Accepting and being grateful for how God made us, and sharing that, helps us to receive His gifts of peace, love, joy, happiness and righteousness.

In advance of observing the third year after Father's Seonghwa, I'd like to share a prose poem from my wife, Miho.

Letter to True Father 3 Years After His Seonghwa

Dearest True Father,

It's almost three years since you ascended to the spirit world. Over fifty years ago you came to this country. You traveled to every state to share a "day of hope" with the American people. The powerful saw you as a threat. They thought they could scare you away forever, but instead you chose to go to Danbury. You paid for America's arrogance by mopping prison floors. While washing your prison clothes full of holes, I cried. You wanted to save this nation even if it meant going to a miserable place.

Riding my bike in the early morning, I feel you are whispering in the wind, "hi, Miho, how are you doing?" When I say, "Father, I miss you so much!" your words come back, "Don't cry, I am with you always."

When I see a bird, you are looking at me through its small eyes, saying, "Don't worry. I know everything that is going on. Good and evil have to separate. Trust me!"

When Hyung Jin Nim speaks, you, Father, are speaking, like thunder, through him. You are pushing us, with a big smile, through him. His sweat is your sweat.

Two weeks ago he said with tears, "(True) Mother is MY mom." We were shocked by the harsh things he said, but he was shocked 1,000 more times than us. Still he has to stand for God and True Father's will, on the front line.

This month, Hyung Jin Nim is spending each day in the blazing sun, cutting trees to build a small house with hand tools. Is his axe like the ones used by the early settlers? He has to strike each tree more than 1,000 times to cut it down. Five or six trees a day...

His travails remind me of Father leaving early each morning for the sea. Father would sit on a chair in his fishing boat for five or six hours, the sun blazing down, not moving even one inch. We had to check whether Father is breathing or not. Suddenly he said, "I'm alright. Don't worry," and returned to his silent praying for several more hours, while the ocean swells rocked the boat back and forth as if it were a child's toy.

Each time he swings the axe, Hyung Jin Nim is praying, "Heavenly Father, let your nation have a new beginning." Yeonah Nim and their 5 children are sweating at his side. For many hours they strip bark off the trees, their once-soft hands blistering. I can see that in her heart, she is swinging the axe together with him 1,000 times.

In my mind, I am swinging an axe together with him 1,000 times, too. With each blow, I say to Father, "Thank you for leaving your courageous son to lead us through the wilderness. He is so much like you! We will never leave you. We will see you face to face soon. Aju!"

The Blessing Ceremony is not simply a wedding ceremony where a man and a woman come together and then raise a family. Wedding ceremonies have so far been self-centered, but our wedding ceremony should be conducted in a sacred and magnificent manner, as something to return joy to God and as a precious offering to indemnify history. The Principle clearly explains that our wedding ceremony is an effort not only to resolve God's sorrow caused by the Fall of Adam and Eve, but also to surpass the standard of bride and bridegroom that Jesus was unable to reach. On September 14, lawyers for HSA-UWC/FFWPU continued its strategy for treating Father's precious words as "their property" by filing a trademark registration for the words, "Cheon Il Guk," revealing once again the disturbing nature of the Family Federation's quest to use its millions to have government agencies enforce its "monopoly" of the Lord of the Second Advent's words in order to prevent his youngest son from being able to discuss his Father's teachings!

Readers will remember that in the beginning of August, HSA/FFWP used its copyright of the "Unification 12 Gate Symbol" to shut down the Sanctuary Youtube channel, preventing brothers and sisters around the world from being able to see the sermon videos. In Sunday's sermon Hyung Jin Nim used this situation as a "teachable moment" to analyze different aspects of the Family Federation's CIG Constitution, in which all departments of government can be investigated for wrong-doing, except for the Supreme Council, where ultimate authority resides, particularly after Mother passes to the next world.

Hyung Jin Nim explains that since God gives all of us freedom and responsibility, a true CIG constitution should require transparency and accountability for all of its citizens.

In the midst of conflicting claims by the Family Federation and by supporters of the Unification Sanctuary, I would like to propose a public forum in the NY/NJ area. Dr. Wilson, Dr. Balcomb, or anyone the Family Federation chooses could speak first about Mother's new theological innovations and why they believe these deserve our support. I would follow with a statement about Hyung Jin Nim's concerns, and then we could have Q&A. We could have a lively, but respectful, discussion about how to preserve True Father's real legacy to which many of us have given many decades of our lives. What do you think?

In the Coronation Ceremony of God's Kingship Jan. 13, 2001, True Father, the Messiah, Lord of the Second Advent and King of Kings declared that, "Article I of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Heaven is that you will not stain the blood lineage. The purpose is to preserve the lineage, keeping it completely clean. It means to maintain the purity of blood lineage for eternity. From this point, the blessed blood lineage that has been inherited through God's love and God's life cannot be contaminated by the actions immersed in the habitual pattern of the fallen world...The second point is not to violate human rights, and the third point is not to steal public money (nak chwi), using public property for yourself."

Therefore, I, Hyung Jin Moon, the Crowned Successor and Representative Body of the Cosmic True Parents of Heaven and Earth and full Inheritor of the Kingship of God, with all the authority endowed in me by True Father--the Messiah, Lord at the Second Advent and King of Kings, hereby declare the following Immutable and Unchangeable, "Bill of Human Rights of Cheon Il Gook," for all people at all times, that shall NEVER be abridged or added-to, in their enumerations.

Greetings!

Four hundred and thirty five brothers and sisters gathered at the World Peace and Unification Sanctuary in Newfoundland, PA on Sunday to honor the third anniversary of True Father's Seonghwa and to participate in the Holy Blessing Ceremony to Restore True Father's Authority.

3rd Memorial of True Father's Seonghwa at Unification Sanctuary 8-30-2015- Part One

Two hundred and twelve couples received the blessing from Rev. and Mrs. Hyung Jin Moon, who presided over the ceremony as the crowned successor of True Parents. In addition, 310 couples participated from around the USA, Korea, Japan, United Kingdom, Spain, Germany, Ukraine, Italy, Switzerland, Sweden, Russia, Kenya, South Africa, Australia, Brazil, Panama, Ecuador, Peru, India, and other countries.

Pastor Moon described his "wilderness" course after being rejected by the Family Federation when he moved to Lords Valley, Pennsylvania, stating that he and his family were able to live by the "grace of True Father" and living close to nature, quite a change for his children who had been living in the palace! Hyung Jin Nim explained the reason for his speaking so strongly since January of this year and how Father had told him that at the age of 33 he would have go the way of the cross.

In a moving ceremony, his elder brother Kook Jin Nim recognized and crowned his younger brother as the King of Cheon Il Guk. This could take place on the foundation of Father's declaration at the 4th Dimension Registration

Ceremony in June, 2012 that Hyung Jin Nim and Kook Jin Nim were the victorious True Abel and True Cain in the True Family who united centering on God's will.

Holy Blessing Ceremony to Restore True Father's Authority, 8/30/2015 Part Two Hyung Jin Nim explained the meaning of the Holy Wine and Blessing ceremonies, in which the bride is married both to Christ as the true Adam and to her own husband.

Rev. Bob Exler, Texas Sanctuary coordinator commented that "we made the decision at the last minute to attend. On the way of the Sanctuary Church we had to stop when a deer crossed the road and starred us all in the eyes with such a pure and innocent look. It was as if we were entering the New Garden of Eden to meet the anointed and appointed Bride and Bride room.

Rev. Erikawa (Japan), and Rev. Exler (Texas)

ACLC Pastor Donald Mims was so moved and grateful to attend the Holy Blessing Ceremony and meet with Hyung Jin Nim and Kook Jin Nim. He felt the presence of the Holy Spirit as never before. He embraced the Holy blessing given to him and his wife Juanita with open arms. They are now a True Blessed Clergy couple representing Christianity and Texas."

After the blessing ceremony, Hyung Jin Nim as the second King of Cheon Il Guk made an historic proclamation of the "Bill of Human Rights of Cheon Il Gook."

Greetings!

In an entertaining and enlightening Sunday Service, Hyung Jin reflected on the previous Sunday's Memorial of True Father's Seonghwa and Blessing event, the background leading up to the Crowning ceremony and about activities that followed with brothers and sisters from Korea and Japan.

He also elaborated about the importance of defining the founding principles of Cheon Il Guk in order to ensure that it does not replicate the Satanic kingdoms of the past which subjugated God's children in order to serve entrenched and often self-serving hierarchies, whether they be political, financial or religious. An anointed person in high authority must respect and obey guidelines such as the three CIG Constitution articles declared by True Father (see above).

In contrast to the hierarchical CIG Constitution decreed by the Family Federation, the human rights that Father said must not be violated are specified in the Cheon Il Guk Bill of Rights that Hyung Jin Nim declared on August 30, which are based on the first ten amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

These freedoms, declared by the U.S.A. founders, are not an historical aberration of rebellious colonists, but rather universal rights that all countries should aspire to and that all people have a moral imperative to claim. America, which Father called an "elder son" nation and fruit of Christian history because it advocated the protection of religious liberty and "God-given freedoms" against the power of the state, should fulfill its responsibility to stand for these ideals in the midst of an increasingly Godless world.

Which CIG Do You Choose?

He also shared deeply about his love and respect for his older brother, Kook Jin Nim, who has sacrificed greatly in order to support Hyung Jin Nim's mission as the heir/inheritor chosen by True Father. Without the support of this victorious "Cain," he would not have been able to go forward to fulfill the mission to which True Father ordained him, especially after he was driven out from the palace.

Yeonah Nim explained with tears about the challenges of surrendering to God's will and the joy and liberation that come from doing so.

Following are a series of short videos of the celebrations after last week's victorious Seonghwa Memorial, Crowning Ceremony and Blessing. It is evident that Hyung Jin Nim has embraced the "wilderness" as a gift from Heavenly Father, a place to ground his faith and to reconnect to the inhabitants of the Creation.

Who grieved the most after the Fall? Who has wailed and writhed in pain the most throughout history? It is God. Why? God knows everything only too well. He would say, "Had Adam and Eve not fallen, they would have inherited this great undertaking -- all of heaven and earth." CSG 1134

Do not take advantage of each other, but fear your God. I am the Lord your God. Leviticus 25:17

And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters. Rev. 17:1

Greetings!

In Sunday's message, Hyung Jin Nim warned that wisdom begins with the fear of God, who gives us warnings so that we can wake up, repent and prepare. Satan tries to lull us into sleep, telling us that good and evil are relative and that "love" and "peace" are all that matters, when actually he is working to bring war and death.

The Greek word porné refers to a prostitute, who sells the most precious part for money. It also refers to an idolatrous community. The Bible also refers to Babylon, the "gate of the gods," and to pagan beliefs that all people can become their own gods.

"The Mystery of Babylon" Sanctuary Sermon

Hyung Jin Nim shared how he warned Mother that she would split the church if she made a new Cheon Seong Gyeong and bring judgment down upon herself.

As an example of the defiling of God's word, he showed the "new" 4 position foundation being taught to church leaders in Korea and in Japan. The essay below examines this new "Divine Principle" and other fundamental changes to Father's teachings.

He also discussed that Hyo Nam Kim's message that you can "buy your sins away" is a desecration of God's word and the Principle. He declared his willingness to liberate 210 generations of ancestors for any member requesting that, with no donation required.

Yeonah Nim spoke tearfully about the pain that True Father had to go through and how Godly sorrow leads to repentance and salvation.

The NEW Divine Principle

On November 16, 2013, near the end of his speech, as part of his 5 City Speaking Tour at the New Yorker hotel, Rev. Young Hwi Kim stated, "we may have to change the Divine Principle." He did not give details, but said this in the context of speaking about the importance of the Cheongpyeong providence of ancestor liberation.

This year, brothers and sisters were told they should liberate 420 generations of ancestors instead of 210, of course centering on Cheongpyeong.[i] Soon after True Father's passing to the spirit world, Mother also declared that "True Father will only come to me or to Cheongpyeong." [ii]

Cheongpyeong clearly has assumed a central importance in the Family Federation's understanding of God's providence. Few Unificationist theologians have undertaken a discussion about this shift, and how it impacts, and changes, the Divine Principle we have been teaching for more than 4 decades.

I am not a big fan of theological debates, which I often find to quickly deteriorate into angry entrenched positions, with little gained by either party. But I feel compelled to point out to brothers and sisters who have followed True Parents for many decades of their lives, that there are fundamental changes to the Divine Principle being implemented by the Family Federation that have not, to my knowledge, been publicized in the U.S.A.

The following booklet cover image is from a FFWP training manual in Korean and in Japanese titled "CIG 2nd Year (2014) Mandatory Material for the Program for Strengthening (Ministering) Ability of Church Leaders/Pastors." training manual, the wife (Eve) is shown in the (viewer's left) subject position of the 4 Position Foundation and the husband (Adam) is in the (viewer's right) object position.

In this

Japanese text in the manual declares that True Mother IS True Parents and that True Mother, God and True Father are a trinity with "God and True Father inside True Mother."

世界平和統一家庭連合(協会)作成の パワーポイント資料にある
「真の母：真の父母であられ、真のお母様の中に
神様と真のお父様が 三位一体となっておられる」を
この図表と照らして見ます。
主体の位置にエバがおり、対象の位置にアダムがあります。

What exactly do these FFWP theological statements mean? The idea of God, Adam and Eve being a trinity is nothing new, but Eve taking the subject position is opposite from the Principle view that Christ, in a subjective position, "the True Father, would come and restore his Bride,"[i] who is in an object position.

Eve taking the subject position in the 4 Position Foundation may explain why Mother has started to sit on Father's throne, as shown in the photo at left. No explanation has been given why Father has been relegated to the Object position in the empty chair (viewer's right). When and why did that happen? Is this the reason Mother feels she has the authority to have harsh statements by Father removed from the Cheon Seong Gyeong so that it is more "polished"? Or to have the Divine Principle left out of the central scriptures listed in the Cheon Il Guk constitution (article 14)?

The idea of God and True Father being INSIDE True Mother is certainly a new doctrine that FFWPU should proudly be explaining to American brothers and sisters very soon. At right is a visual representation of this statement.

Following is an attempt to make sense of this intriguing new teaching.

Mother has declared that, unlike Father, she was born sinless (From her "Only Begotten Daughter" speech, July 1, 2014, "The process of changing the lineage occurred while I was in my mother's womb. This is something you have to believe...The moment when True Father succeeded Jesus' mission, when Jesus appeared to him, this qualified True Father as God's only begotten son. Do you understand? This is something you have to know."). Is this why she believes she is qualified to have Father "inside" of her?

NEW FFWP TRINITY

TRUE MOTHER

GOD

TRUE FATHER

As for why Mother is said to be carrying God inside her, I have NO idea. The FFWP will have to explain that one.[i]

The teaching of Hyo Nam Kim (Hoon Mo Nim) given to 2nd Generation leaders at Cheongpyeong

after Father's passing is that the way to remove their fallen nature is to remove evil spirits from their body through the Chanyang Sessions. She also teaches that to accomplish the removal of fallen nature, a Wish Paper needs to be submitted to Jeongshim Won (prayer hall). She has said, "For us to remove this fallen nature we first must remove the spirits in our body. When we remove these spirits then can we remove fallen nature,"[i]

"through removing the spirits that are in our body we are able to organize this evil lineage and fallen nature,"[ii]

and "when you go and write the Fullfillment of Wishes Papers at the Jeongshim Won, if you just write 'Please help me in removing fallen nature' then your fallen nature will be removed."[iii]

Is that what Father taught? Is that what the Divine Principle teaches? REALLY?

Father has said, "I am saying that you should not listen to Hoon Mo Nim's words. Hoon Mo Nim acts without discussing with me. If I act as I like without discussing with God like Hoon Mo Nim does, where would heaven and earth go?" (Father's Words, Book 612, Page 200)

Towards the end of Mother's speech from the 8/30/15 Third Memorial of True Father's Seonghwa Service, she states, "This is what I would like to tell him. Father, please do not worry from now on. We will absolutely complete our responsibility. Therefore, we sincerely hope that you, Father, will comfort, in the eternal Garden of the Original Home, the Heavenly Parent, who has been lonely until now, and that you will become free as His object of praise."

Mother expresses her wish that Father should "not worry" and that he "will comfort" in the "eternal Garden" "the Heavenly Parent" since "we (Mother and the Family Federation) will absolutely complete our responsibility."

While it could be interpreted as simply an expression of sincere, good wishes, this statement also portrays Father as not active in the spirit world. True Father should not worry and stay in a garden comforting God, since Mother and the Family Federation are "completing (their) responsibility." Yes, Eve/Mother is clearly in the active subject position with True Father in a passive, objective position comforting God. If he does so, he will "become free" as God's "object of praise." Does this mean that Father is not yet "free"?

I do know that Father sometimes went into nature to be alone, pray and commune with God, but it always was in preparation for coming back into the world to turn it upside down.

The Sun Myung Moon I know was a roaring lion, not a purring kitten. I do not believe that his going to the spirit world has changed his character. If anything, I believe he is MORE active now, not less, since he no longer has a 9-decade-old physical body. He is not limited to one location and certainly not to Cheongpyeong. He told us many times that in the spirit world you can appear in different places at once. Spiritually sensitive brothers and sisters have seen him countless times at the Sanctuary Church in Newfoundland, PA, but he is not limited to that location either.

And what about Mother? There are many powerful women who played important roles in the Providence. To take one example, Rebecca risked her own life in guiding Jacob to gain the birthright and his father's blessing, and to protect him when his older brother wanted to kill him. Without her actions, the chosen people and the messiah's lineage would not have been established.

We know that Father made several declarations of Mother's accomplishments, such as in the "Ceremony for the Proclaiming and Celebrating True Parents' Cosmic Victory" on June 14, 1999. One might suppose that in declaring Mother to be victorious in 1999, Father was saying Mother had attained perfection, but then why did Father say in 2007 that "Mother must now perfect herself by June 16, 2013"?[i] Having been declared victorious did not indicate she was perfect or infallible. As explained in the Divine Principle, with all declarations made by Father as well as those by Heavenly Father recorded in the Bible, there remains one's portion of responsibility to maintain the blessing. Having been declared victorious does not guarantee that one will not make a mistake, even a serious one, afterwards.

We all feel gratitude to Mother for victoriously supporting Father for more than five difficult decades, but when it came time to support her youngest son whom she, along with Father, crowned three times as the heir/successor, she instead chose to cause him to be fired SEVEN times. Hyung Jin Nim was fired from his positions as the 1) head pastor of the headquarters church in Seoul, 2) head of UPF Korea, 3) head of CARP/YFWP, 4) head of World Mission Department, 5) president of Korean FFWPU/HSAUWC, 6) president of American FFWPU/HSAUWC, and 7) World Chairman of the FFWPU.

During the times of these firings, all of which took place after Father's passing and most very soon after that event, one would imagine that serious allegations of misconduct on his part were uncovered. Was it discovered that he embezzled funds to purchase a luxurious apartment or an expensive golf course? That he was unfaithful to his wife and was attending sex clubs? That he was abusive to members? No, the record shows quite the opposite. During his time of leadership, there was: 1) growth in the Korean Unification Churches as they were required to become more self-reliant and transparent, 2) reductions in the amount of support asked from the Japanese church and members, 3) positive coverage in the Korean media, 4) his proud proclamation of Unification identity and teachings, 5) creation of local and regional church councils in America with real authority to make decisions, etc.

No explanation has been given as to what would justify his being cast out. Was it because of Hyung Jin Nim's enthusiasm for Father's Absolute Sex teaching, his commitment to transparency and local ownership, his unwillingness to go along with "polishing" Father's words and now "revising" the Divine Principle, or for his declining to blindly support the Cheongpyeong-centric "providence"?

My question would be - what was so important to Mother that it was worth rejecting her own son? What is more important than supporting the success of the Messiah's lineage, which we have always been taught is the main rationale for Christ's return?

Mother has recently instructed us about the need to "unite with" Heung Jin Nim and Hyo Jin Nim as filial and loyal sons and that if we do so, we will be "prosperous for ten thousand years." [i] Apparently, the only male True Children to be respected are those who have died and can no longer speak for themselves. Surely there is a Cheongpyeong medium who will soon report to all of us that Heung Jin Nim and Hyo Jin Nim agree with everything that is being done in their names.

Father did allow the Cheongpyeong providence, just as he allowed Black Heung Jin Nim to speak to brothers and sisters all over the world. But, as with any providential activity, there is always one's portion of responsibility to fulfill. One may succeed in offering the heifer and the ram, and at the last moment, "fall asleep" and not offer the birds.

Many brothers and sisters have told me that they see Father speaking each Sunday through his youngest son. I have often felt that myself. I would urge Mother to come to Pennsylvania and experience even one of Hyung Jin Nim's sermons. I'd bet that she would also be very proud of the powerful spiritual leader he has clearly become, and want to do everything she could to support his anointed ministry. Isn't that what almost any mother would want? Isn't that what the True Mother of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind would want?

Shouldn't the True Mother of Heaven, Earth and Humankind, who is said to be absolutely one with God and with True Father, be in agreement with the clear desire expressed by True Father in the years and months before his passing to spirit world,[i] instead of doing EVERYTHING in her power after her husband's passing to DRIVE OUT the appointed son from EVERY Family Federation position to which he had been appointed, and having her proxies warn and threaten faithful church members to have NOTHING to do with him? This exemplifies a mother's heart full of compassion?

Here are True Father's words of hope and blessing regarding his beloved youngest son and his wife:

The shining hope of tomorrow is that the True Parent, the True Teacher, and the True King, the representative of the kingship of hope, and the authority of the heir to that kingship, is here...

Know that they have inherited all the foundations enabling the conditions of indemnity to be laid, inherited the authority of the representative and heir that True Parents established with all their strength, and inherited True Parents' altar of victory that allows them to become without blemish- owners, as individuals, before the Republic of Korea, owners of a blessed family, and owners in the position of teachers who can govern a nation...

Let this couple be the son and daughter who should undergo labor pains while embracing the world again and who can carry on the way of loyalty and filial piety with the intention of inheriting the realm of inheritance of True Parents liberation and inner emancipation.

Hyung Jin Moon and Yeon Ah Lee, these two, this son and daughter, are standing before the True Parents. At this time of transition today, this occasion is one where they can inherit the authority as the representatives and heirs who can attend to everything on behalf of True Parents...

This Father, I fervently pray, True Parents know that it will not be easy for these two, this son and daughter, to teach the authority that they inherit and hold on behalf of True Parents. At the end of this life, with little to remain, let these two offer all they can to become a representative point that can teach the people of all nations about the path they should take from this time on.[1]

True Father reaffirmed this appointment in 2010[2] and also in 2012.[3] I see no evidence that he withdrew this "transition of authority" before his passing to the spirit world, or after. Considering the pain that Father must feel seeing his words disobeyed and his beloved youngest son, his inheritor, driven out into the wilderness by his own mother, I can see why Father might not be "free," and need to comfort God.

Greetings!

In this week's sermon, Hyung Jin Nim discusses how the Family Federation adopted a new "only begotten daughter" theology and relativist viewpoint in order to make the foundation for a "new Vatican" in Cheong Pyeong, and in so doing "making war on the Lamb, Christ who is the King of Kings." One reason most brothers and sisters don't know about these actions is because Peace TV "blackouts" content they believe is "too sensitive" for members to know about.

Hyung Jin Nim shares about an email he recently received from a Korean member who attended Father's Hoon Dok Hwe on Jan. 19, 2012. In this email he explained that the Peace TV and History Compilation Committee chose not to record Father's strong words that morning. Fortunately, this brother took notes of Father's HDK that morning, which Hyung Jin Nim discusses in passionate and moving detail.

2012-1-19 Hoon Dok Hwe Notes

As usual this day also after the HDH reading, True Father spoke. But what was unusual was that his talk was about True Mother. His words were frank and painful, filled with fire and regrets. Those present were embarrassed. Here were some of his points:

- * "True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind" is not two as Father and Mother, but one.*
- * Mother is Father's platform. Just eating with and following Father around does not automatically makes her True Mother.*
- * Acting separately will cause doom and death.*
- * Those who do not respond to Father and just hang around Mother are villains.*

 Do not brag about Anju (Mother's* hometown) and the family name Han. If you do that you don't become True Mother.

 Mother is going her own way like a Dokkaebi (negative spirit/monster). She is not walking the same road as Father.*

 You villains (True Children, executive aides and church leaders [mentioned by name]) are following Mother and walking a different path than me. Villains!*

 Anyone who follows Mother and thinks he doesn't need Father is a rootless Dokkaebi.*

 Only Heavenly Father is with lonely Father.*

 For Mother to say "Don't listen to Father, listen to me" is a more frightening than Lucifer.*

 I am all alone now. I don't have any sons or daughters. Mother plays her own game.*

 When Hyo Jin was alive he said to me -"Father, I feel sorry for you. Why is Mother not listening you, and doing her own thing?"*

True Father proclaimed: From this time on Mother has to absolutely obey Father. Then Father asked Mother who was sitting next to him to stand up and go to in front of the table face Father. Then True Father called Drs. Jun-Ho Seok, Sun-Jo Hwang, Jeong-Lo Yoon, and Hyo-Yul Kim (Peter Kim) to the front to make a line behind True Mother and made all raise hands including all Hoon Dok Hae participants to pledge absolute obedience. True Father repeatedly urged True Mother to answer "□(Yes)". He then asked everyone to raise their hands and clap to confirm they knew Father's will and seal this special ceremony.

PS: Because cameras and tape recorders were not allowed, I had to check with several who attended and have faithfully recorded what transpired as best I could until the Weekly Planning and History Compilation Committee can provide a detailed record.

Hyung Jin Nim explains that those at the palace who spoke about uplifting Father as the Messiah were bullied by "thought police" who told them they shouldn't be talking about Father anymore. This was the time only to honor the reign of "victorious True Mother." Such "thought police" were following the precedent of Mother herself.

Erasure of Father's strong and controversial words because "it would damage our image" is shameful, Hyung Jin Nim said, explaining, "We don't care about our "image," we care about the truth."

The fate of humanity rested on Mother's choice. Like God, Father did not intervene with Mother's choice. That is why Eve is represented by the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. Sadly, Mother chose to separate from Father, who was judged to be "senile."

WARNING: The following paragraph refers to "Absolute Sex" which FFWP says must NOT be taught anymore.

The sermon concluded with an honest and even humorous discussion by Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim about Father's Absolute Sex teaching. As the Divine Principle teaches, the only thing more powerful than the Principle is love. Physical intimacy are viewed differently by men and women, but passionate, respectful love between husband and wife chases out the challenges and stresses that all couples experience and protects the precious lineage.

This is the "Special Ops" and heavenly "Swat Team" of Blessed Couples that chase out infidelity and mistrust that characterize Satan's Kingdom.

We received many emails after last week's sermon, including the following one from a brother in New Zealand about the 2 CIG's- the "Covenant in God" and the "Calf in Gold."

Just reviewing an earlier letter re the ceremony to bequeath the 8 Great Sacred Texts. I started thinking about Moses coming off Mt Sinai with the 2 sacred texts to find the people worshipping a golden calf. Moses went up the mountain for forty days returning with the Covenant in God (CIG) to find the people worshipping a Calf in Gold (CIG). The people had lost faith and began worshipping the false CIG. Now we have Father who bequeathed to us the Eight Sacred Texts, goes up to Spirit World, and down below the people start changing the true CIG scripture (Covenant in God) to the false CIG scripture (Calf in Gold) and we start 'worshipping' this fraud version. As it was for the Israelites, judgment will come.

We received two letters from Jim Stephens, who with his wife Hiromi, served as Blessed Family Department directors for the national FFWPU for several years. To read Jim's letters, and several others we received, visit our new

Unification Sanctuary Commentary Page

I wrote the following letter in response to a letter that was chastising Hyung Jin Nim for speaking about Mother as the "Whore of Babylon" for departing from Father in order to unite with Kim Hyo Nam. In Revelations 17, Babylon is guilty of committing "fornication" and is a "whore." In the Bible, fornication is the act of committing adultery against God by mixing with Pagan nations and practices (traditions) and going after other gods.

Imagine you were Hyung Jin Nim

Imagine that you were Hyung Jin Nim and that you believed what your Father/True Parents said about you in numerous public events from 2008 to 2012, that you are the heir/successor of His/True Parents' work, not in the future, but now.

You are working to bring health, renewal and change to the UM in Korea and Japan, with encouraging growth in membership and respect from Korean media, government institutions, but as your Father is getting ill, you see indications that your own Mother is working with church leaders to change key words and covenants that Father said not to change. You also see hundreds of millions of dollars of blood money from Japan being siphoned off by the same person who is said to be "channeling" Mother's mother as well as by other "leaders" whom Mother trusts.

You ask her on your knees many times not to make these changes. She is angry that you insist on obeying Father instead of her Cheongpyeong-centered "innovations" and has you fired from all of your responsibilities in Korea. You are sent to America where you hope that positive change can happen because of American brothers and sisters' character, history and Christian foundation. You create local and regional councils and you start speaking and teaching to ministers and members about Father's Absolute Sex teaching.

Instructions come from your Mother through her proxies that teaching about Absolute Sex must stop immediately. Soon after you are fired from your position in America, with the demand that you come back to Korea and bow down to the same people who are desecrating your Father's words. Some of them tell you to pretend to agree with what Mother is doing and then you will take power after she goes to spirit world, but your conscience won't let you do that.

You move your family to rural Pennsylvania and spend time communing in the outdoors all night with God and Father, holding worship services in a very bare living room, making effort to connect strongly with Jesus and Father. Brothers and sisters start to come to your worship service even though the church headquarters warns them not to go.

Your Mother continues to claim that she monopolizes Father's will and has the authority to make all kinds of changes that converge on people needing to liberate more of their ancestors by sending more of their savings to Cheongpyeong. She starts to sit on Father's throne since she IS True Parents. She starts to teach that she was born sinless (change of blood lineage in the womb), implying that she did not need to meet your Father, Sun Myung Moon, to be the "only begotten daughter of God."

You realize that, even though you have barely enough resources to take care of your family, if you do not speak strongly to brothers and sisters around the world, that your Father's words and teaching will be erased/"polished" from the earth. You know that you will be judged as a disobedient son who was "angry," "impatient," and "power-hungry." But if you don't speak out, brothers and sisters will lose their connection to the Messiah's lineage and his foundation hijacked to support a "palace" and a place where people "pay" to have their sins removed.

But you speak out anyway, feeling God's love and protection despite the storm around you. At least you and your wife are totally united in a desire to honor Father's will. You and your family will serve and honor the Lord of the Second Advent, even if your Mother and most of those who promised not to change Father's words, threaten, mock and scorn you. You believe that God will work, and He does...

Finally, here is a testimony written by my wife after the Unification Sanctuary Blessing on 8/30/15.

Looking for the Newfoundland small bridge. In the distance I can see clear, pure water running down the mountains and a 7 color rainbow reflecting off of the lake.

Dear Abonim,

The third anniversary of your ascension has come. We are holding a memorial at the Sanctuary Church. We are a little anxious, but we are making effort.

I hear your voice, "I have already been there at the Sanctuary Church for three days. I prepared everything. Everything is ready. I have called brothers and sisters from all over the world. The ones I can trust are coming."

When I heard your voice, I knew you are working hard on the frontline, as always. I remember you slept only a couple of hours a day when you were on earth. Now that you have moved to the spirit world, you are working 10 times harder. You are traveling all over the world, but when we have a difficult time, you remember to show your face to us.

God is looking for a pure group. On the morning of August 30, I was walking around when a squirrel dropped a couple of acorns in front of me. Several birds started to sing. I said to myself, "the Creation is happy today."

We rushed to the church. Already many hardworking brothers and sisters were there. I knew many had been following True Parents for 30-40 years. Their spirits shined like diamonds.

I remember Hyung Jin Nim saying that once on his birthday, Abonim told him that at age 33 he would have to go on the cross, his age when he was fired from all of his positions by the Family Federation.

It was unusually cold in the early Spring when Hyung Jin Nim's family arrived in an empty house whose bare rooms had no furniture yet. Each night he stayed outside in the subzero weather with just one blanket, praying and watching the stars. Later he said, "Father is in a difficult, cold place now, so that is where I want to be."

He spent a lot of time in nature, where the only beings his size were bears and deer. Spring came and then summer. In the blazing sun he was cutting down trees to build an outdoor "house." This became survival training for his four sons and daughter.

Abonim used to talk about how female salmon swim hundreds of miles back to the place of their birth, full of eggs. After leaving their eggs on gravel beds, the salmon lay exhausted, with no more energy left and die.

When one of our children are having a hard time, a mother prays, "please help my son, even if you have to take my life."

On August 30 the whole world was watching. Many brothers and sisters said they could see Abonim speaking through Hyung Jin Nim. When Kook Jin Nim was crowning his younger brother, I could see Father's hands helping to place the crown. They were all shedding tears. So was I.

Greetings!

My eyes have been opened. It was ALL a mistake! Thanks to the journalistic skills of an outstanding writer, Larry Moffitt, we now know the facts about why Eve was shown in the subject position in the famous diagram. Shows you what committed, professional journalism is able to do! As Larry stated in a Facebook post last night,

"Atsushi Yamada, Manager of the Planning Department at FFWPU-Japan said they do not have Eve in the subject position in their official manual. The diagram (Lecturer's guidance on True Parents' life course) which Hyung Jin Nim shows in his sermon was an error made in Korea by someone on the staff of Dr. Tae-kyong Oh. The staff member incorrectly put Adam and Eve in reversed positions when he made the diagram. This was confirmed by one of Dr. Oh's staff in Korea."

The "non-existent,"
"un-official" manual

Since this error was printed in the non-existent/un-official Korean manual, surely the Family Federation will be releasing a public statement very soon clarifying that this was a regrettable mistake and heresy for Eve to be appearing in the subject position. I'm sure that the Japanese FFWPU will be happy to issue a similar statement regarding the non-existent Japanese manual as well that "Eve appearing in the subject position would be a grave mistake and heresy."

Of course, while they are paying attention to this regrettable mistake, they may as well add another statement regarding the heresy shown in the photograph, with Eve sitting in the subject position, where Adam sat for 50 years before he went to spirit world. Conscientious journalists and outstanding theologians in the Unification Movement will be inspired to arrange for them to clarify that this is a heresy as well. Right?

Surely leaving out Father's name on the blessing rings in 2013 was also a regrettable mistake made by one of the staff members. Headquarters will be issuing a memo about this soon!

And since adherents of the fair-minded FFWPU assure us that brothers and sisters are free to sing Father's Blessing of Glory song instead of the inspiring, North Korean-style "anthem" at official church functions in Cheongpyeong, Family Federation headquarters will issue a memo about that right away, too. Remember, it was all a mistake.

And the trademark filing by FFWPU lawyers on September 14 to register "Cheon Il Guk" as its "property" was likely intended to prevent dastardly North Koreans from misusing Father's precious words and not an attempt to prevent Father's youngest son, repeatedly appointed and anointed by Father from 2008 - 2012 as his heir/successor/resident body from using his Father's blood-stained words and covenants. Remember--it was all a mistake.

Finally, I'd like to renew the invitation sent out on Monday to have a public forum with Dr. Balcomb, Dr. Wilson, or any representative they can find who still believes in FFWPU's veracity, and myself to have a lively, but respectful discussion about all of these important issues. In the midst of conflicting claims by the Family Federation and by supporters of the Unification Sanctuary, I would like to propose a public forum in the NY/NJ area. Dr. Wilson, Dr. Balcomb, or anyone the Family Federation chooses could speak first about Mother's new theological innovations and why they believe these deserve our support. I would follow with a statement about Hyung Jin Nim's concerns, and then we could have Q&A. We could have a lively, but respectful, discussion about how to preserve True Father's real legacy to which many of us have given many decades of our lives. Greetings!

In Sunday's fascinating and powerful sermon, Hyung Jin Nim discusses how in history, democracies have always degraded into mob rule, where minorities are persecuted for their beliefs, leading to oligarchy and tyranny.

The American founders did not create a "democracy," but rather a representative form of government called a "republic," with limits on the power of the executive, legislative and judicial branches. Tragically, through unconstitutional grabs for power, the U.S. government no longer has effective limits on the power of the executive or judicial branches.

Similarly, the Constitution of the CIG proclaimed by the FFWPU centralizes power in a "Supreme Council" which cannot be investigated or audited. It is not a document that protects freedom of speech or human rights.

The Constitution of the United States of Cheon Il Guk to be made public next Sunday at the Sanctuary Church will be a document where God-given rights and responsibilities as well as limits on federal government are clearly stated.

Isn't it hopeful and refreshing to have a member of the True Family who cares about these issues and seeks to envision a form of government that one would actually want to live in? Hyung Jin Nim's commitment to fighting for freedom is not just lip service.

Even skeptics of his ministry have acknowledged that he and Kook Jin Nim played an instrumental role in supporting Mr. Goto's court case that his human rights were violated through his 12 years 7 months of confinement by faith breakers. On September 29, Japan's Supreme Court vindicated his case, which he states was "not just a personal fight," but also on behalf of the 4,300 victims of abduction and confinement during the past 50 years. He also made it clear that there are still brothers and sisters in Japan are confined by faith breakers.

Given the reality of oligarchy and tyranny in this world, shouldn't it be even more crucial to have PROTECTIONS OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM AND HUMAN RIGHTS in the constitution of the Kingdom of Heaven?

Finally, I'd like to renew the invitation sent out previously to have a public forum with Dr. Balcomb, Dr. Wilson, or any representative they can find who still believes in FFWPU's veracity, and myself to have a lively, but respectful discussion about all of these important issues. Greetings!

On a beautiful Autumn day on Columbus Day weekend, Unificationists from many parts of the U.S. and from many nations around the world gathered at the Unification Sanctuary in Newfoundland, PA. to witness the declaration of the Constitution of the United States of Cheon Il Guk by the 2nd King of Cheon Il Guk, Rev. Hyung Jin Moon, who proclaimed in the Constitution's Preamble, that:

Cheon Il Guk, the Kingdom of God , a sovereign and actual nation does not yet exist in this world, but is the long awaited culmination of the End of Time as prophesied in Biblical Scripture. The Divine Principle and the Eight Great Textbook Curriculum revealed by True Father, Christ at His Second Coming, is the spiritual foundation of this Constitution. It is upon the foundation of these eternal truths that the future nation of Cheon Il Guk will be politically, and legally established. This Constitution is not an ecclesiastical Constitution of a church or religious body, but is a Constitution for a real and sovereign, future nation, being the literal fruit of God's Providence...

Preamble to Constitution of the United States of Cheon Il Guk

Greetings!

On September 27, 2015, UTS professor Andrew Wilson gave a presentation at the Clifton Family Church in which he explained his enthusiastic support for Mother's theological proclamations and strong criticism of Hyung Jin Nim's ministry.

I reached out to Andrew to see if he would like to participate in a public forum to discuss these important issues in the Unification Movement, but he declined. Consequently I have decided to create a video response with the title, "My Response to Andrew Wilson."

Rev. Hyung Jin Moon Will Conduct a Ceremony for the Liberation of 210 Generations of Ancestors

This ceremony will be held on December 6, 2015 at Sanctuary Church, Newfoundland, PA. On September 13, 2015, during his Sunday sermon, Rev. Hyung Jin Moon declared that he will conduct a ceremony for the liberation of 210 generations of ancestors for any individuals requesting that. Pastor Hyung Jin Moon also explained that all liberations conducted while True Father (Rev. Sun Myung Moon) was alive are considered valid and that those conducted after his father's passing were invalid.

Cheon Il Guk, the Kingdom of God , a sovereign and actual nation does not yet exist in this world, but is the long awaited culmination of the End of Time as prophesied in Biblical Scripture. It is upon the foundation of these eternal truths that the future nation of Cheon Il Guk will be politically, and legally established. Preamble to Constitution of the United States of Cheon Il Guk

Greetings!

I have reluctantly concluded that in order to preserve my deep-seated belief of 4 decades that "True Parents are One," I must honor Mother's theological declarations, as difficult as they are to accept. In order to truly honor those I must discard my old Divine Principle book, which I now realize has so many mistakes that Father did not notice during his lifetime. It is painful to even write these words, but to think that "True Parents are no longer one" is something I just cannot deal with.

NEW FFWP TRINITY

New Trinity described in
"CIG 2nd Year (2014)
Mandatory Material for Church Leaders/Pastors"

I realize that I must accept Mother's statement of July 1, 2014 that she was born sinless (change of lineage in her mother's womb) and therefore did not really need to meet Father as the returning Christ. I must accept the new trinity and the new 4 position foundation printed in the leadership training material in 2014 and also taught at an international training conference at Je Ju Do just a few months ago (2015) showing that "Adam fell with Satan, gives and receives with Eve, and the sinful children emerge."

I also realize that the Genesis account about Eve "eating the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil" is also mistaken, likely because it was written by men who had a gender bias. I am hopeful that the Family Federation will soon support the creation of a new Bible that corrects this error.

Adam falls w/Satan, Je Ju Do workshop 2015

I will try to persuade Hyung Jin Nim about this new clarification of the Principle, but as you know he is very stubborn. How stubborn? Let me give you a partial list.

* He stubbornly refuses to accept the new Divine Principle being revealed by Mother, which exposes how Father failed to acknowledge Mother's sinless lineage and also his misunderstanding of the Fall.

* He stubbornly thinks he should remain faithful to his Father's original words, even though those words were often harsh and blunt. How blunt? Here is an example: "Mother came from the lineage of the fallen archangel. To do this I had go forward with absolute faith, absolute love, and absolute obedience. Therefore, I came this far with that kind of belief and faith. Since she came from the fallen lineage I had to go completely the opposite way of the universe. I had to deny everything." 10/1/2003 HDK, <http://www.tparents.org/moon-talks/sunmyungmoon03/SM031001a.htm>

* He stubbornly refuses to pray to Father/Mother God or even Heavenly Parent(s);

* He stubbornly continues to think it's unfair for Japanese brothers and sisters to be required to pay 100 TIMES more for the 3 new scriptures issued by Family Federation than American brothers and sisters;

* He stubbornly considers the ongoing exploitation of Japanese brothers and sisters to be a sin against God;

* He stubbornly refuses to encourage brothers and sisters to send more funds to Cheongpyeong despite Mother's direction that ALL of us need to liberate 420 generations of ancestors, not just 210 generations as Father directed;

* He stubbornly believes that the children of God and citizens of Cheon Il Guk should have a bill of rights that protects their God-given rights;

* He stubbornly believes that governments should be the servant of the people, and not their master, and that therefore checks and balances as well as division of powers are needed as described in the error-filled Divine Principle;

* He stubbornly continues to believe what his Father/True Parents said about him in 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012, that he is the "successor/heir/resident body of True Parents."

It is very, very regrettable, but seeing how stubborn his Father was and is, I am not surprised. If you want to see just how stubborn, absolute and unchanging he is, his latest sermon is a good example. But I will try my best, I promise...

A brother who wishes to remain anonymous has developed an in-depth analysis of a video by UTS professor Tyler Hendricks called "Thoughts on Sanctuary Church." We've posted "A Review of Dr. Tyler Hendricks' Presentation 'Thoughts on Sanctuary Church' Part 1" on our Sanctuary website.

I look forward to having a public dialog with Tyler or other supporters of Mother's new theological declarations, in whatever format they feel would be reasonable.

Regarding yesterday's email, "THROW OUT your Divine Principle!" I guess I should make it clear that I have NOT thrown out my Divine Principle book.

While it is very true that I do find it painful to consider that "True Parents are no longer one," I am not willing to unite with Mother's declarations if it means rejecting Father's and Divine Principle core teachings.

For those who do not read Japanese, here again is the diagram from a workshop for Family Federation leaders held a few months ago at Jejudo with English translation.

Lecture material from 2015 Leaders Workshop at Jejudo

The diagram shows Adam as the one Satan is directly dominating or has ownership of (note circle with Satan and Adam inside), and then secondarily, Adam having give and take with Eve who is below and outside the circle of Satan's dominion, followed to the right by "Children of Sin" being produced, expanding from the family to the world of sin.

To put it mildly, this would seem to be a significantly revised interpretation and approach to teaching the Fall of Man, but I agree that more context is needed, and perhaps the Family Federation will help all of us by proudly explaining the true meaning of this lecture material being used to train FFWPU leaders in 2015.

Even Mother here does not know. Therefore, many spiritualist ladies cry tearfully in pity for me. If I do not say this, who would know? You do not know how serious the problems were that I have confronted, and how much I have had to fight with spirit and body. Sun Myung Moon (210-81, 1990.12.1)

All of Korean history was to await the birth of the Lord of the Second Advent, the Only Begotten Daughter. Hak Ja Han, October 24, 2015

Greetings!

You don't have to be religious to understand the value of a strong, healthy marriage and its benefits for children and society. In Sunday's sermon, "The Foundations of CIG," Hyung Jin Nim describes the strong and healthy 4 position foundation as the "SWAT team against Satan," that creates empowered, moral men and women who are the basis of a free society.

Every totalitarian society targets strong "pair-bonding" because it fears that loyalty to one's family will diminish loyalty to the state. For that reason Karl Marx and Communist societies sought to undermine the family in order to make people dependent upon centralized government.

Without unity of husband and wife, Satan invades. This is true for all families. God calls husbands to be vigilant protectors of their household. The number one factor for child poverty, suicide, and delinquency is the absence of fathers. In modern-day America, many men fear taking responsibility. Each gender has vulnerabilities that Satan seeks to exploit.

This is also true on a societal level. Some cultures devalue women, preventing them from having access to education or even basic human rights. On the opposite end, western feminists, who dominate much of higher education, blame patriarchy for all of society's problems and idealize matriarchy as the ideal. They see men as the root of selfishness, greed, lust, aggression, violence and war. If women were in charge, they say, we would have charity, selflessness, purity, healthy communication, non-violence and peace.

Contemporary feminist culture often belittles boys and manhood

The fact that women perpetrate half of all domestic violence incidents is ignored by these ideologues. Clearly both sexes have a potential for violence. Since mothers do most of the parenting for young children, there is a real potential for negative impact on children of mothers administering "emotional corporate punishment," out of irritation, frustration or a loss of control. Such children become more likely to engage in antisocial and impulsive behavior themselves.

Sadly, the Family Federation is embracing much of this ideology. Feminist UTS theologian Andrew Wilson is speaking around the country about the Family Federation's vision of "The Age of Women," effectively endorsing a non-Biblical idolatry based on feminist power analysis. (see my critique)

A new FFWPU lecture series for leadership training in Korea and Japan actually teaches a new version of the Genesis story in which Adam was dominated by Satan first. One can see why the authors of the FFWPU constitution would not want to include the Divine Principle as a key scripture of CIG since it contradicts this new teaching.

In Mother's new feminist theology, all of Christian history and Korean history was waiting for her appearance as the Lord of the Second Advent. In her speech to FFWPU leaders and members on October 24, Mother explained that all "2,000 years of Christian history was to make the foundation to find the Only Begotten Daughter" and that all of Korean history was to "await the birth of the Lord of the Second Advent, the Only Begotten Daughter."

We all have loved and respected Mother, but I know who the Lord of the Second Advent is. Since Mother is raising herself up as the "Lord of the Second Advent" should a conscientious Unificationist just blindly follow this new Han Mother theology? I know what my conscience tells me...

At the conclusion of the sermon, Yeonah Nim reflected about her own parenting practices and a revealing statement from her 5 year-old son. Here is the link again for this powerful, challenging sermon.

The King, along with staff and members of Sanctuary Church, continue to pray for the safety and well-being of everyone in Moldova affected by this incident, particularly the two persons currently in police custody and their families.

Greetings!

Following is a statement from the Sanctuary Church regarding the situation in Moldova. As the statement above makes clear, Hyung Jin Nim, the staff and the members of Sanctuary Church are praying for the safety and well-being of everyone in Moldova affected by this incident, particularly the two persons currently in police custody and their families.

It should be clear that the World Peace and Unification Sanctuary did not direct Sanctuary members in Moldova to make a complaint to local authorities. God will judge them, or the FFWPU leaders, if they have done something wrong.

Hyung Jin Nim also gave me permission to launch a relief fund for the families of the two FFWPU leaders. Every penny raised will go to assist the families during this difficult time. If you would like to donate to this, go to:

<https://www.youcaring.com/families-of-imprisoned-ffwpu-leaders-in-moldova-463473>

As the American president of the Unification Sanctuary, I would like to make a personal appeal to the Moldovan Sanctuary members to withdraw their complaint to the police. Even though it is true that the Family Federation refused to meet with them to address their concerns, posted martial arts experts to prevent them from entering services and complained to the police twice, causing them to be fined, Jesus and True Father practiced forgiveness. I strongly believe that religious disputes should be resolved internally, if at all possible, without involving government authorities who have little understanding about the issues involved.

A Statement by Sanctuary Church on Recent Events in Moldova

Right 1 of the Constitution of the United States of Cheon Il Guk guarantees religious freedom to all persons.

We have received reports of an incident in the Republic of Moldova in which local police detained two leaders of the local chapter of Family Federation for World Peace and Unification, including the chapter's national leader. Police also searched the homes and private vehicles of multiple FFWPU members and the office of International Relief and Friendship Foundation, where they removed computers, cash and other items.

Earlier this year, seven former FFWPU members who now support World Peace and Unification Sanctuary (Sanctuary Church) wrote letters to the police in which they reported their private concerns related to possible violations of local laws by FFWPU leaders and other related persons working in Moldova. At least one of the persons submitting these letters was subsequently interviewed by police in person and by email.

One of the letter writers has reported to the Sanctuary Church World Mission Headquarters that a series of events led up to the decision to involve the police. In March, a number of FFWPU members watched a sermon by Second King of Cheon Il Guk Hyung Jin Moon in which the King stressed the importance of transparency and accountability in building God's Kingdom. Later, some of these members approached the FFWPU chapter president with a request for an opportunity to convey the King's message to other members of the chapter.

Initially, the members were promised such an opportunity during or around the regularly scheduled Sunday worship service on March 29. On arriving at the venue for this service, they found that martial arts experts had been stationed at the door with instructions not to allow certain members to enter. Facing this threat of violence, the disallowed members withdrew after a short commotion.

The members made a second request for a similar meeting to be held during the following week. They said that if FFWPU leaders chose not to give them an opportunity to discuss financial transparency and other issues, they would feel compelled to go to the police with their concerns about possible illegal activities by FFWPU leaders and related persons.

Their request received no response. Instead, the local FFWPU reported one of the members to police for disorderly conduct at the time of the Sunday service. The member paid a fine as a result.

During the same week, a member visited a construction site related to some of the concerns held by the members requesting the meeting. When the member attempted to speak with workers at the site, FFWPU reported her to police. She was also fined.

On Saturday, April 4, the FFWPU chapter held a general meeting of its members. During this meeting, four members were voted out of FFWPU Moldova. It was only after this vote that a group of members began holding their own Sunday services patterned after the services in Newfoundland, Pennsylvania.

During the next couple of months, the members of the excluded group struggled over how to proceed. Around June, after much prayer and discussion, they agreed that each person would make an individual decision on whether to submit a letter to police. Seven members decided to write such letters. The content of each letter was kept confidential, even from other members of the group of seven.

It is not clear what role these letters and the subsequent police interview(s) may have played in the recent police action. Judging from the intensity of the action, it seems reasonable to assume that police are acting on a great deal more information than what was provided by the seven letter writers.

Sanctuary Church is a free association of people who believe that True Father Sun Myung Moon is the Messiah and King of kings and that his son Hyung Jin Moon is his sole legitimate representative and inheritor and Second King of Cheon Il Guk. We believe that each person has the ability to act with his or her God-given freedom, with the caveat that the person must take responsibility for the consequences of such free actions.

Though we do not have all the facts regarding the situation in Moldova, partly because the police investigation is still on-going, we acknowledge the seven letter-writers for what must have been a difficult and courageous decision to act in accordance with their consciences.

Sanctuary Church believes in local sovereignty. We respect the right of the seven Moldovan members to make such a decision and leave it God to determine the righteousness of their actions. Most healthy organizations have processes through which members can bring possible wrongdoing to the attention of senior management without recrimination. If FFWPU had such a process, the seven letter writers likely would not have gone to the police.

At the same time, we are saddened by the reaction to this news by some members of FFWPU in the United States and elsewhere. We call on FFWPU to reach out to its members with a reminder that the rhetoric of violence will not contribute to a positive outcome of this situation.

The King, along with staff and members of Sanctuary Church, continue to pray for the safety and well-being of everyone in Moldova affected by this incident, particularly the two persons currently in police custody and their families.

We also remind all FFWPU leaders around the world that the King, in a sermon delivered on February 8 this year, dismissed them from their positions and ordered them to step down so that members could elect their own leaders.

Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? Gen. 3:1

God can say, "If I had not made humanity, they would not have become the way they are. How could this happen when I was searching for love and longing for the glorious Kingdom of Heaven!" How could this happen? It was because they inherited the devil's flesh and blood. The devil's love was implanted, along with the roots of his life and lineage. God could not possess humanity without removing these things, but if He did remove them they would die. Therefore, God had to set up a substitute as a second creation or medium of salvation through an infusion of new blood, life, and love. CSG, p. 137

Greetings!

Before I discuss Hyung Jin Nim's brilliant exploration in his Nov. 8 sermon of how different reproductive strategies (lineage) impacts our lives, values, and politics, I'd like to express my appreciation to the Family Federation.

Congratulations to the FFWPU!

Congratulations to the FFWPU. After redacting Father's words, now it has turned its editing skills to redacting Mother's words. In the original Korean text of Mother's October 24 speech, she says, "In conclusion, Korea produced the Second Coming of Christ, the Only Begotten Daughter." In the first Japanese translation of the speech, this is also what appears.

But then in the English translation posted on the Cheongpyeong website the word "and" is inserted between "Second Coming of Christ" and "Only Begotten Daughter," resulting in "In conclusion, Korea produced the Second Coming of Christ AND the Only Begotten Daughter."

Seeing the American translation, the FFWPU then issued a revised Japanese translation in which they also inserted an "and." A good example of the mother nation uniting with the Elder Son nation in rejecting the heretical proclamation that Mother, as the Only Begotten Daughter, is the awaited Second Coming of Christ, not True Father.

Good job, FFWPU in America and Japan! Even they know that Mother's new Only Begotten Daughter theology is unacceptable, unbiblical and unprincipled, and therefore the need to "polish" her speech. Also, interesting that the only mention of True Father in Mother's speech is his role as a "gardener" in finding an "udambara" flower. To see the speech in Korean, Japanese, and English, go to: 10-24-2015 Cheongpyeong Speech, (quote on bottom of page 6)

Returning to Hyung Jin Nim's sermon, he began by returning to the previous week's theme of Female Responsibility Avoidance Syndrome, in which women are always portrayed as victims, never as the perpetrators of violence or wrong decisions. Yet, research reveals that women perpetrate half of all domestic violence incidents. Clearly both sexes have a potential for violence. Since mothers do most of the parenting for young children, there is a real potential for negative impact on children of mothers administering "emotional corporate punishment," out of irritation, frustration or a loss of control. Such children become more likely to engage in antisocial and impulsive behavior themselves.

The cultural bias against men has led to male college students hesitating to date women, out of fear they will be blamed for offending them.

Hyung Jin Nim discusses research about 2 differing reproductive strategies, quantity vs. quality. Rabbits and antelopes reach maturity quickly, reproduce repeatedly, with little care or investment for each of the offspring with single parenthood as the norm. In an unpredictable environment, with little defense against predators, this "r-strategy" is effective for weaker animal species such as rabbits and deer that are unable to defend themselves. They display little or no sadness when one of their group is eaten by a predator.

Other animal species, such as lions, wolves, and owls, have a "K-strategy," in which they embrace competition in order to better prepare for recognized threats in the world, have high investment in offspring, have delayed monogamous pair-bonding, and high-in group loyalty. Those who deviate from the honor codes are ostracized in order to maintain unity and order that protects the survival of the pack. K represents "carrying capacity" for larger animals higher in the food chain which reproduce slowly in order to protect offspring and not exhaust limited food sources. Mating partners must prove their worth, often through fights among the males. Such is the case for cuttle fish, except for a few males who pretend to be female in order to mate with the females.

For humans we pass on not just unchangeable genes, but also the "epigenetics" of unlocked traits affected by our choices. Eve's decisions during the spiritual Fall affected her DNA.

K-type humans build civilizations. Competition leads them to prove their worth to the community and to excel. They protect their families from threats and invest in their children at great personal sacrifice. They are willing to provide aid and charity to the deserving poor who have encountered a tragedy.

While they are conservatives who value economic freedom, they on average contribute more to charity. They have strong honor codes.

R-type humans avoid competition. Their motto is "make love, not war." They are opportunistic exploiters and prefer government transfers of resources including "sex subsidies" in which the government incentivizes free sex with payments to pregnant women with no committed husband. They hate ostracism because they don't want standards that would reduce the availability of sex partners and therefore the continuation of their genes.

"R" gene sets proliferate with unstable environments, especially with absent fathers and abusive fathers or mothers. With less parental investment the children reach puberty at earlier ages in order to reproduce in an unstable environment. Research shows they even have smaller amygdalas, thus reducing their ability to recognize threats and unhealthy behaviors and less ability to empathize with others. R-types prefer sexual freedom to economic freedom, desiring more government aid and sex education that minimizes the risks of uncommitted sex and lowers standards.

Lucifer was an "r-strategist" who advocated fulfilling immediate desires rather than thinking and preparing for the future. This has led to the epigenetics or the lineage of "satan" that True Father denounced so many times. Fortunately, if someone from a satanic lineage encounters Christ, learning new ways of thinking and living, it is possible to change one's epigenetics to God's lineage, from a Free Sex to an Absolute Sex lifestyle. Greetings!

At the beginning of Sunday's provocative Nov. 15 sermon on "Living Blood," Hyung Jin Nim discussed attacks at a concert hall, sports stadium and restaurants in Paris by Islamic extremists, which have led to an estimated 129 deaths with 350 injured. Since the entire city of Paris is a virtual "gun-free zone" due to France's "extremely strict weapons laws," there was no one in the concert to defend concert goers who were being gunned down. It took more than 2 hours for the Parisian police to arrive at the concert hall. If the French government trusted its law-abiding citizens to carry weapons, much of the slaughter at diverse locations could likely have been avoided. As examples, he cited the nation of Switzerland where there are high levels of legal gun ownership and very low homicide rates.

In an age of non-state-sponsored terrorism and random crime events, it is not possible for governments to protect individuals without establishing draconian martial laws. The free citizens of CIG should not depend on government, but self-reliantly protect their families.

Hyung Jin Nim also made it clear that the nation of Cheon Il Guk protects religious freedom, including the freedom to be an atheist. That is the freedom that God gave our human ancestors. Regardless of beliefs, all citizens will benefit from the God-given freedoms that limit government power and intrusion on citizens.

Before I discuss the rest of Hyung Jin Nim's sermon and how different reproductive strategies (lineage) impacts our lives, values, and politics, I'd like to share a letter from Kevin Brugman explaining how God led him to resign from his position as the Dallas FFWPU leader in order to support Hyung Jin Nim's ministry as the Dallas Sanctuary coordinator.

FFWPU Resignation Letter-Kevin Brugman, Dallas, TX

To Whom It May Concern:

This is my letter of resignation from the Dallas Family Church/FFWPU. I have been prayerfully reflecting on my initial reasons for joining CARP many years ago, my belief in the teachings of Divine Principle, as well as my belief that True Father came as the Second Coming of Christ.

As I reflected about all of these things together with Tami, we also re-affirmed the love we have for one another and our children; the value and meaning of the 3-day ceremony; and our process of engrafting into the lineage of the messiah. It is through these prayers and reflections, and through much thought and discussion, that I have decided to resign from the FFWPU, and from my position as an assistant pastor of the Dallas Family Church.

After True Father passed away, whenever I thought about him, I could not help but cry. I longed to see commitment to the will of God that he showed throughout his life, and to the teachings that he established, so that all people could eventually be saved and live in his Kingdom.

I see a commitment and love for God's will and ideal; and to the teachings of True Father, from Hyung Jin Nim, that I do not see anywhere else. I feel called by God to support Hyung Jin Nim; because of the love that he shows for God, True Father; and to doing God's will.

I don't believe I can fully support and honor the will of God in the Family Federation; and I believe the teachings of True Father, being persevered by Hyung Jin Nim, provide the best foundation for practicing the ideals of true love, centered on God's original lineage.

Sincerely, Kevin Brugman

In the sermon, Hyung Jin Nim again discussed research about 2 differing reproductive strategies, quantity vs. quality. Rabbits, deer and antelopes reach maturity quickly, reproduce repeatedly, with little care or investment for each of the offspring with single parenthood as the norm. In an unpredictable environment, with little defense against predators, this "r-strategy" is effective for weaker animal species such as rabbits and deer that are unable to defend themselves. They display little or no sadness when one of their group is eaten by a predator.

Other animal species, such as lions, wolves, and owls, have a "K-strategy," in which they embrace competition in order to better prepare for recognized threats in the world, have high investment in offspring, have delayed monogamous pair-bonding, and high-in group loyalty. Those who deviate from the honor codes are ostracized in order to maintain unity and order that protects the survival of the pack. K represents "carrying capacity" for larger animals higher in the food chain which reproduce slowly in order to protect offspring and not exhaust limited food sources. Mating partners must prove their worth, often through fights among the males. Such is the case for cuttle fish, except for a few males who pretend to be female in order to mate with the females.

You will not be calling your physical mother mom either.

In this third sermon on the connections between Father's teachings on Blood Lineage and research in Evolutionary Biology, Hyung Jin Nim explores how r vs. K reproductive strategies influence politics, culture, and ethics.

Hyung Jin Nim points out that those of the K reproductive strategy value competition, economic freedom, delayed sexual intimacy and high parental investment and supervision of their children.

Those of the r reproductive strategy abhor economic freedom which leads to inequality of results, clear ethical standards and anything that would limit the pool of sexual partners. Indeed, it is interesting how the United States, which Father once praised as being the fruit of Christian history, now uses financial aid to smaller nations as a weapon to force them to accept gay rights/marriage, legalization of prostitution and "sexual rights" education that put youth at greater risk for becoming infected with HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted infections. Since countries which have legalized gay marriage have seen sharp declines in marriage rates, such actions weaken marriage and families, which is, in fact, the goal of the fallen "r reproductive strategy."

Conversations with "Mother God"

Last week I received an email from a Unificationist sister who now uses the term "Mother God" in her communication with God. Here are highlights of our back and forth.

Dear Richard,

Mother God, who had been suppressed and oppressed throughout human history began emerging after 2006 and was asserting herself alongside Father God, who had been a single parent throughout human history. Naturally there would be friction. Even if someone has wanted to share the burden for 6,000 years, it may still be difficult to actually begin do so with someone who does things so totally different from yourself.

Dear [],

You are writing as if "Mother God" is actually a separate being from "Father God" and having "friction" with "Father God." Do "Father God" and "Mother God" need to go to marriage counseling??

Since the whole revelation from the Bible is monotheism- that "God is One," not two, how is that a Principled point of view? Yes, according to the DP, God has both masculine and feminine qualities. Yes, because of the Fall, God likely had to suppress more sensitive, feminine qualities in order to conduct the providence of restoration. Does this mean there is a separate being called "Mother God" who has "friction" with a "Father God?"

Dear Richard,

M..... said something I heard a long time ago and had forgotten about which she also heard a long time ago. And it makes a lot of sense to me. That Mother God, the feminine aspect of God at the time of the fall, was so devastated and ashamed that she withdrew into and behind Father God and almost disappeared. She has not been able to believe in herself. The reason I can relate so well to that and believe that that's true is because I think that's how most women feel about themselves a shame or not believing in themselves. With True Mother's leadership I believe that is changing.

Dear [],

Again, God is one. There are no separate "Mother God" and separate "Father God." If you and other sisters want to relate to the more feminine aspects of God's heart, etc., I say, "Go for it!" But if you envision a separate "Mother God" who has her own agenda that differs from "Father God," aren't you creating an idol who is not God?

You write that Mother God was "so devastated and ashamed... She has not been able to believe in herself." Why should God be ashamed? Why should God "not believe in 'herself'?" God did not fall. Aren't you attributing emotions to a god who is in your own image? Doesn't God feel compassion and deep sadness for both men and women who have defiled their original image by accepting the lies of Satan?

Yes, Satan does lie to women, making them feel accused, in order to defeat them. Satan also lies to men, leading them to believe and do evil things, contributing to their guilt and shame as well. Maybe that is why men have a two to three times higher suicide rate than women. We have ALL been victims of Satan's lies.

I believe that ALL OF US, men and women, are released from guilt, shame and failure to believe in our true selves through our repentance for believing, accepting and acting on Satan's lies. By encountering God's truth and love we can be reborn through Christ, who came again during our lifetimes. We can engraft into the blessed marriage, family and lineage he established with Mother, whom he expected would honor, respect and follow his words and covenants, not redeem a separate Mother God through her "leadership." At least that is my understanding and experience.

I also want to invite you to read two brilliant and powerful essays which explore Mother's recent proclamations, "Cherishing God's Lineage," by Masako Ando, and "Letter to Andrew Wilson - Response to 'Only-Begotten Daughter' " by Kerry Williams. Both are also posted on the Sanctuary Commentary page.

Finally, I'd like to share a testimony by my wife Miho.

Autumn Memories at East Garden

by Miho Panzer

Almost all of the leaves are gone. The mornings and evenings are getting cold. The autumn season is ending soon. I am missing True Father a lot.

I spent ten years at East Garden serving True Parents. In the afternoons Father used to come down from his room. On the first floor by the entrance there was a fireplace. I used to wrap sweet potatoes in aluminum foil and put them into the fire for an hour. Then I would take them, still very hot, with steam coming out, and offer two or three to Father. He would peel off the aluminum foil and then the skin. Blowing on a sweet potato to cool it off, he would start to slowly eat it. I could see he was remembering when he used to eat "koguma" cooked on hot stones as a snack when he was a boy.

Father was very sensitive. If the sisters who were cooking food for him were angry or fighting with each other, even if there were many delicious dishes on the table, he would refuse to touch any of them, asking instead for instant "Noguri" ramen.

Father would never go to bed earlier than midnight and then sleep no more than three hours. Even then, I saw many times that he was praying in his sleep. Often, early in the morning, he would go to holy ground to pray, even if it was bitter cold.

He liked to play a game of pool during the day, sometimes for many hours. I would offer him a chair, but he always refused to sit down. By the end of the afternoon, his legs would be thick and swollen. Even playing a billiards game, he was setting a condition, thinking of front-line brothers and sisters who could not sit down or relax.

One time I was struggling in my life of faith, even thinking to end my life. I packed my bags and without telling anyone was walking to the East Garden entrance, planning to go to a lonely spot to carry out my plan, but somehow Father knew what was going on in my heart and called the security guards saying that he was looking for me and telling them to stop me at the entrance if I was trying to leave. I can say that Father saved my life that day.

Father's life was full of prayer, day and night. He was the most holy person I have ever met. I miss him every day, but I know he is watching and working hard at our side with us, even now.

Unto thee will I cry, O Lord my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit. Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle. Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbors, but mischief is in their hearts. Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavors; give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert. Because they regard not the works of the Lord, nor the operation of their hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up. Blessed be the Lord, because he hath heard the voice of my

Greetings!

In this sermon on "Freedom and Responsibility" Hyung Jin Nim explores how the original fight for women's equality and right to vote has been co-opted by a Radical Feminism which portrays women as helpless victims oppressed by a "patriarchy," posing ever increasing government as the solution to problems it has enabled.

Are women in America "oppressed" by a patriarchy? Hyung Jin Nim examines the evidence:

- * Children have an 8 times greater risk to be beaten or abused in single mother families;
- * Since women live 5 years longer than men, they receive 5 years more social security benefits, even though men pay 60% of social security taxes;
- * Men pay 63% of Medicare taxes, but receive 44% of Medicare health care benefits;

- * 75% of chronic homeless are men;
- * 77% of homicide victims are men;
- * 97% of American combat deaths are men;
- * 79% of suicides are by men;
- * Criminal sentencing for men is 63% greater for the same crimes and history;

* Women are twice as likely to avoid incarceration for the same crimes;
* 6 in 10 college students are women;
* Research on STEM (Science/Technology/Engineering/Math) field employment found that female applicants were twice as likely to be hired.
These are hardly evidence that women are being oppressed by men. Most men, especially those who are married husbands, are working hard to support, protect and take care of their families and communities.

Hyung Jin Nim also discussed how feminist bias in family courts in the U.S., the UK and other western democracies has led to a presumption that fathers are always guilty of abuse. Far from being patriarchies, these countries have become government-enforced matriarchies which justify their bias by anti-male social conditioning, which unfortunately aligns with the new theology coming from the current FFWPU.

Yeonah Nim shared that the Divine Principle teaching that Eve was the first to fall is an expression of God's love for women. Since criminals, as cowards, will always choose the weaker target, Lucifer naturally manipulated and targeted Eve first. Instead of blaming men for their problems, "true women" are empowered through their Savior, Christ, who comes as the True Adam, and who transforms men from abusive, self-seeking archangels into sons of God.

Greetings!

I would like to express my appreciation to Tyler Hendricks for his video series, "The Victorious Gospel of True Parents." It reminded me of how much we are all indebted to Mother for walking the difficult course that she did with True Father, and how much love I have felt for her during the past four decades.

In his third video, Tyler reads from Father's words from 1981:

"Even under such circumstances she still kept up with it all, and in the end she became the True Mother who is even greater than the holy Mother Mary. The most admirable point about Mother was that she believed in me more than in her own father, grandfather or elder brother. She believed in me 100 percent. Thus she overcame all the obstacles and established a firm position...Whatever happened, even if she should die, she had to keep an unchangeable attitude toward her husband." God's Will and the World, 577-8, May 1, 1981

Victorious Gospel of True Parents- Part 3

Tyler also cites a quote from the same speech in which Father states, "Mother and I could obtain God's seal as a true, perfected family, and we could take our position on the earth." God's Will and the World, 577-8, May 1, 1981

Tyler goes on to explain that perfection means that you are unable to fall. So the following question arises, IS MOTHER PERFECT? IS MOTHER UNABLE TO DO ANY WRONG SINCE SHE IS PERFECT, as Tyler believes?

Here is what Father said in 2007: "Mother must now perfect herself by June 16, 2013. Then she should return to her original position." May 11, 2007, "Nature Renders Judgment to You" Hoon Dok Hae, Cheon Jeong Gun, Korea

Clearly Father would not say, 26 years after the quote that Tyler cited, that Mother must now perfect herself by 2013 if she were already perfect or in the direct dominion of God. It is clear that whatever victory was achieved in her first seven year course did not mean that Father considered her to be perfectly united with him or Heavenly Father in 2007.

On August 29, 2011, True Father spoke about the future "Perfection Level Blessing of True Parents" that was to take place on his birthday in 2012:

By having the Holy Wedding Ceremony of Perfected True Parents when I become 93 years old and mother becomes 70 years old, we will enter the era in which True Parents will go with all (the Blessed) families heading for a perfected heaven and earth.

Our birthday next year will be for this wedding ceremony...by having the wedding ceremony when True Parents can proclaim their perfection,we need to re-establish the standard of liberating the nation centering on 36 couples, 72 couples, 124 couples, and 430 couples, and call all the Blessed families (to Korea)." August 29, 2011, Hoon Dok Hae, Cheon Jeong Gung, Korea

The day prior to this planned Holy Wedding of True Parents in 2012, True Father cancelled the wedding and gave Mother one more year to achieve the required level of unity with Father. We all know that Father passed into the spiritual world before his next birthday in 2013 and the final stage, the Holy Wedding Ceremony of Perfected True Parents (perfection stage wedding) NEVER TOOK PLACE.

I'd like to again refer to the 1981 quote from Father that Tyler cited, in which Father says, "The most admirable point about Mother was that she believed in me more than in her own father, grandfather or elder brother. She believed in me 100 percent. Thus she overcame all the obstacles and established a firm position. Whatever happened, even if she should die, she had to keep an unchangeable attitude toward her husband."

I'd like to ask a painful question to all brothers and sisters. After all those decades of Mother's obedient suffering, love and sacrifice, is Mother still showing an "unchangeable attitude toward her husband?" I realize that many of you will be shocked that I would ask such a question.

To be honest, I am shocked and saddened that all of us are being put in a position where we have to even think of such questions. If someone had asked me even two years ago if Mother were absolutely faithful to Father after his passing I would not have understood the question.

There is a term in psychology called "Cognitive Dissonance," which is "the mental stress or discomfort experienced by an individual who is confronted by new information that conflicts with existing beliefs, ideas, or values." I think this describes my own emotions and those of many brothers and sisters who cannot believe what is happening in the Unification Movement at this time. Some would prefer to just look away...

Cognitive Dissonance

"the mental stress or discomfort experienced by an individual who is confronted by new information that conflicts with existing beliefs, ideas, or values."

So, let me pose the question again: "Is Mother still showing an "unchangeable attitude toward Father after his Passing?"

Let's take a look at Mother's recent public declarations in her speech, "In Search of the Root of the Universe," on October 24, 2015.

In her speech on that day the only reference to True Father is that a rare flower was blooming near his grave. There are however 4 references in her speech to how all of providential history was preparation for her own coming as the sinless Only Begotten Daughter. Here are the 4 quotes about her own status:

1. "Therefore, with resurrection over the two-thousand-year history... That is the history of the Holy Spirit. What you need to be aware of is that this was the foundation to search for the only begotten daughter of God. Do you understand?"
2. "that Christian foundation was the means to search for the only begotten daughter of God."
3. "God's providence includes a search for the only begotten daughter of God."
4. "Korea produced the Second Coming of Christ, the only begotten daughter of God..." (shown in following video, click on "CC" to view English translation)

2015 Cheongpyeong Autumn Great Works
(10/24/2015)

To summarize, there are four references to how all of Christian and Korean history was to produce the "Only Begotten Daughter," and just one reference to True Father, who was fortunate to have a rare flower growing near his grave.

Because of criticism of Mother claiming that she is the second coming of Christ, the original Japanese translation was changed to insert the word "AND" in the last statement so that it would read "Korea produced the Second Coming of Christ AND the only begotten daughter of God." This is also what is shown in the English translation, but they cannot change the original Korean (see video above), which clearly has the proclamation that the Second Coming of Christ is the Only Begotten Daughter, Hak Ja Han. (Speech in Korean, Japanese and English.)

Are there any words in Mother's speech about how grateful she is to have met Sun Myung Moon as her personal Messiah? Or about how we must have an unchanging attitude towards Father's words, covenants, and directions? Not that I can see.

I realize that many brothers and sisters, who are experiencing cognitive dissonance, will deny the new information or evidence of Mother's apparent indifference to Father because it is so painful to consider that Mother no longer "believes in [Father] more than in her own father, grandfather or elder brother. " In fact, her own father's and grandfather's lineage receive more praise as part of the glorious Han race than Father or his lineage. But don't believe me, read the speech for yourself.

Some will say that Mother does refer to "True Parents" several times in her speech, but to be honest, I wonder if the words "True Parents" have become a marketing tool to sell the latest theological products being concocted in Cheong Pyeong? If the term "True Parents" is now being used as a brand name like Nike or McDonald's, it no longer is promoting the original recipe in which the lifeblood of True Father as the returning Christ is the key ingredient.

What can we infer about this new recipe when we see that thousands of blessing rings distributed soon after Father's passing, starting in 2013 only had Mother's name, not Father's name, inscribed inside them?

Let me cut to the chase, and state what I believe is really driving all of this. Below is the much-discussed diagram from a Je Ju Do leaders workshop that took place earlier this year with the Japanese words replaced with English. Whether you think this is describing the process of the Fall or the results of the Fall, I think the MOST interesting new term that I've never heard in any Divine Principle workshop is "God's Adulterous Husband." Why is this new term now being used? Does it not reflect the Family Federation's view that Father had unprincipled relationships with other women, that Father could not control himself and that it was Mother who saved him? Isn't that why Eve is shown OUTSIDE the circle of Satan's influence? And doesn't this align with Mother's view that she was born as the sinless Only Begotten Daughter from a praiseworthy lineage?

All Unificationists need to make a crucial decision at this time in our lives. We have heard about the women that Father had relations with, often referred to as the "6 Marys." We each have to decide whether we believe that Father had those relationships out of uncontrolled, fallen sexual desire or out of a principled motivation.

Some of you know that my wife, Miho, lived at East Garden for 10 years, serving Father and Mother directly, at all times of the day or night. Miho has told me several times that she NEVER saw or felt anything unprincipled coming from Father, that in fact Father was the most holy person. She could even hear him praying in his sleep. I am posting her testimony below for your reference.

But you decide—was Father the Second Coming of Christ, the True Adam who restored an Eve from a fallen lineage, making the way for all of humanity to be restored? Or was he a hypocrite who spoke about Absolute Sex, but could not control his own sexual desire? That is the dividing line.

To conclude, in order to agree with Tyler's belief that Mother is perfect, incapable of making a providential mistake, and totally united with Father after his passing, we would have to accept that when Father arrived in the spirit world in 2012, he suddenly realized or admitted to himself that

1. He was wrong about Mother coming from a Satanic lineage.
2. He was wrong about Mother needing to meet him as the Second Coming of Christ in order to be restored, that in fact she was sinless from birth.
3. He had failed to sufficiently educate members and the world about Mother's position as the sinless Only Begotten Daughter who was the fruit of all Christian and Korean history.
4. He was wrong to not educate members about the glorious Han lineage.
5. He was wrong to insist that the CSG not be changed. That it in fact needed to be "improved" by removing inappropriate strong, critical statements about Mother and church leaders.
6. Even though he and Mother had anointed and appointed and reappointed Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim as the heir/successor/inheritor/resident body couple of True Parents in 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012, Father suddenly realized that this couple was not qualified and that the appointment must be revoked or delayed until Mother decided Hyung Jin Nim was obedient to her "innovations."

7. Father realized that Hyung Jin Nim must be immediately fired from all his positions in Korea.
8. Three months later Father realized that it was wrong for Hyung Jin Nim to teach about Absolute Sex, that he must stop doing so immediately and must be fired from his position as American church president.

If you want to believe these eight assumptions, then that is your choice. But if you accept them, do you really still believe that Father is the returning Messiah? As for me, I choose to believe the words that Father spoke, when he said,

"The last six millennia have been a history of seeking and re-creating one Adam. Eve cannot be created without Adam. This is why God is creating one man, Adam. This is why you must follow me. The blood and flesh of countless people who came and went on the road of the providence of restoration had to be used as material for this purpose. The resentment of zillions of spirit people must be consolidated here. Then on the day of the advent of the incarnation of Adam, the martyrs who shed their blood and died under extreme persecution will feel their value for the first time.

Autumn Memories at East Garden

by Miho Panzer

Almost all of the leaves are gone. The mornings and evenings are getting cold. The autumn season is ending soon. I am missing True Father a lot.

I spent ten years at East Garden serving True Parents. In the afternoons Father used to come down from his room. On the first floor by the entrance there was a fireplace. I used to wrap sweet potatoes in aluminum foil and put them into the fire for an hour. Then I would take them, still very hot, with steam coming out, and offer two or three to Father. He would peel off the aluminum foil and then the skin. Blowing on a sweet potato to cool it off, he would start to slowly eat it. I could see he was remembering when he used to eat "koguma" cooked on hot stones as a snack when he was a boy.

Father was very sensitive. If the sisters who were cooking food for him were angry or fighting with each other, even if there were many delicious dishes on the table, he would refuse to touch any of them, asking instead for instant "Noguri" ramen.

Father would never go to bed earlier than midnight and then sleep no more than three hours. Even then, I saw many times that he was praying in his sleep. Often, early in the morning, he would go to holy ground to pray, even if it was bitter cold.

He liked to play a game of pool during the day, sometimes for many hours. I would offer him a chair, but he always refused to sit down. By the end of the afternoon, his legs would be thick and swollen. Even playing a billiards game, he was setting a condition, thinking of front-line brothers and sisters who could not sit down or relax.

One time I was struggling in my life of faith, even thinking to end my life. I packed my bags and without telling anyone was walking to the East Garden entrance, planning to go to a lonely spot to carry out my plan, but somehow Father knew what was going on in my heart and called the security guards saying that he was looking for me and telling them to stop me at the entrance if I was trying to leave. I can say that Father saved my life that day.

Father's life was full of prayer, day and night. He was the most holy person I have ever met. I miss him every day, but I know he is watching and working hard at our side with us, even now.

Rev. Hyung Jin Moon Will Conduct a Ceremony for the Liberation of 210 Generations of Ancestors

This ceremony will be held on December 6, 2015 at Sanctuary Church, Newfoundland, PA. On September 13, 2015, during his Sunday sermon, Rev. Hyung Jin Moon declared that he will conduct a ceremony for the liberation of 210 generations of ancestors for any individuals requesting that. Pastor Hyung Jin Moon also explained that all liberations conducted while True Father (Rev. Sun Myung Moon) was alive are considered valid and that those conducted after his father's passing were invalid.

Those who were blessed after Father's Seonghwa or who received Holy Wine at Foundation Day would need to receive the Blessing to Return to True Father's Authority in order to have their ancestors liberated.

ancestors. This was the first official Liberation and Blessing of ancestors conducted after True Father ascended in 2012.

More than one thousand Unificationists from Korea, Japan, the United States, Philippines, Thailand, Russia, as well as other countries in Europe, Africa, Central and Latin America, Central and South Asia participated in the event including those present and those who submitted their ancestor liberation requests who were watching through the live Internet broadcast.

Greetings!

Many brothers and sisters have told me that Hyung Jin Nim is violating what they think should be his highest priority, which is unity with Mother, and within the True Family and the Unification community. This has led me to reflect on the question, "what is Father's idea of unity?"

We all know how often Father spoke about the importance of the unification of North and South Korea. I recently heard an account of Father's meeting 14 years ago, in December 1991, with Kim Il Sung, the North Korean "absolute leader" who had imprisoned Father in the Hungnam death camp for nearly 3 years (1948-1950).

According to this testimony, Father stayed up all night before the meeting, agonizing about what God required him to do the next day. The first meeting was with high North Korean government officials. Father did not take too long with initial greetings and pleasantries. He suddenly began to tell them that if North Korea did not abandon its godless "juche" ideology and acknowledge the reality and authority of the living God, Kim Il Sung and his Communist regime would be judged and destroyed. I'm told that several church leaders at the meeting were so scared about what would happen to all of them that some of them lost control of their bodily fluids, requiring a change of their underwear.

However, when Father did meet with Kim Il Sung, the man who had imprisoned him and caused the deaths of millions, they warmly embraced. Soon thereafter several joint projects were launched between the Unification Movement and the North Korean government. My friend believes that the bloodthirsty dictator Kim Il Sung's direct experience with the living Christ and the spirit of God that day profoundly moved him.

What can we learn from this? Father's understanding of the path to unity has nothing to do with humanistic strategies in which people say pleasing things they think their opponent wants to hear. His first concern was to tell the truth. On this foundation of absolute faith, love, and obedience, God was able to work and to bring about a unity which is truly centered on Him.

Hyung Jin Nim also speaks strongly. What else would you expect from a son of True Father who feels a deep obligation to protect his Father's words and legacy from a profound violation?

Some long-standing friends of mine, whom I have known for decades, have cut off all contact with me and other brothers and sisters who support Hyung Jin Nim. They have apparently been directed by the Family Federation to do so. One sister whose husband believes that Hyung Jin Nim is doing God's will recently gave him divorce papers. In Korea and Japan members have been kicked out of the Family Federation for attending Sanctuary events or showing insufficient enthusiasm for Mother's "innovations." In Japan, where liberating the required 210 generations of ancestors through Cheongpyeong cost more than $180,000, they have now been directed by Mother to liberate another 210 generations.

Such hardball tactics belie the Family Federation's veneer of "benevolence," but they are backfiring. Last Sunday Hyung Jin Nim exercised his authority as the anointed heir and successor of True Parents to liberate 210 generations of ancestors of 1,000 families from Korea, Japan, America, and many other countries around the world. Brothers and sisters donated whatever they felt led to give, not an onerous "tax" that has led some families to bankruptcy and even suicide.

Even if you disagree with what you think Hyung Jin Nim is saying, I would urge you to take a deeper look, beyond the harsh words that may shock you. As with the example of Father's declaration in Pyongyang, God's words are not always sweet, and words that are sweet are not always from God.

Spouting "True Family Values," ACLC Hides in the Closet

Rhetoric at the 20th Anniversary "True Family Values" banquets held last weekend in New York City and Chicago waxed eloquent about religious freedom and restoring America's families, but when ACLC had the chance earlier this year to support ministers in Houston who were being persecuted for standing up for religious freedom and natural marriage, national ACLC cowered in the closet.

Leaders of the national ACLC and of its governing board were asked three times to publicly express their support for the religious freedom of clergy and citizens taking a stand to stop the gay rights activist mayor of Houston from using government power to subpoena the sermons and emails of local pastors and the rights of citizens to decide whether they want to allow a man to walk into a public women's bathroom just because he "identifies" as a woman. National ACLC "leaders" refused to give ANY support to the local Houston clergy (including several local ACLC pastors) taking a stand for religious and civic freedom in the face of government actions to intimidate them.

True Father, who founded ACLC, was not known for being afraid to stand up for God's ideal, even when it meant risking his life. He must feel disheartened and betrayed watching what has become of the organization he founded to challenge America's clergy with their responsibility to restore the ideal of man-woman marriage centered on God.

In Sunday's spirit-filled service Hyung Jin Nim called for a celebration of the victory of the Ancestor Liberation and Blessing event held on December 6, as he explained Father always did after a providential victory. No longer would Japanese brothers and sisters be exploited in a racially discriminatory way by being charged $180,000 to liberate 210 generations of their ancestors, ten times more than brothers and sisters in other countries.

Hyung Jin Nim called upon brothers and sister to cast out fear and worry of any kind through praise and worship. Even though we may fighting battles of all kinds, we can feel the joy of God.

After Father's passing and their realization about the totalitarian intent of CheongPyeong, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim listed to Gospel and Praise music for several hours with tears and praise for God and Father's life.

Hyung Jin Nim used to love to go into leaders' meetings and lay his head on Father's stomach, breaking all the rules of etiquette. This freed Father to give more love. After the challenging victory of the Ancestor Liberation he had a dream of skipping through the woods with Father.

We become what we worship. If we worship knowledge, we will become focused on knowing things. If we worship God, we become more like Him. Greetings!

Before I discuss the above-mentioned revelation, I'd like to draw your attention to Sunday's spirit-filled service in which Hyung Jin Nim discussed the meaning of Christmas. Even though December 25 was not the real birthday of Jesus, which scholars believe took place in early Spring, the early Christians did worship on that day.

All of us have sinned. All of us need to change our blood lineage through Christ. Despite common portrayals of Jesus as soft and feminized, he came to challenge the false, satanic power structures using force when he needed to. After all, did he not whip the 20 money changers and chase them out of the temple?

Father also eschewed the palace in favor of the Amazonian jungle or the wide, open ocean, living constantly in the "midbar" of nature where you are not in control. He was constantly making effort to break up monopolies and hierarchies in the Unification Movement.

Sanctuary Christmas Worship, 12/20/2015

Hyung Jin Nim urged us to put our first priority in being a friend of God, not of fools who worship power or wealth. The mind is a battleground. The devil brings fear and anxiety to our minds, making us weak and fearful. If we praise the goodness of God we become stronger.

Young people are especially vulnerable to what others think, letting a spirit of fear enter their hearts. Our worship of God should not just be emotionalism, but be rooted in the Word. God is your bridegroom, the lover of your soul. Don't let the rules of archangels limit your life!

The ASTONISHING Revelation of Mrs. Gil Ja Sa Eu

As many of you know, Mrs. Gil Ja Sa Eu has been touring the country as Family Federation's representative to persuade members to continue to support Mother's leadership and her "wonderful, perfect power." In her talks around the country she has stated her support for Mother changing whatever she wants to in the Cheon Syeong Gyeong since she and Father are "equal." I see a problem with having two "equal" subjects, rather than "subject-object," but that is a discussion for another day.

What I found most interesting in her talk was the way she described Father's and Mother's attitudes towards Hyung Jin Nim. Here is a two minute and twenty second selection from her talk in Minneapolis on December 9, 2015. The first 72 seconds are Mrs. Eu's words in Japanese. The rest is the English translation.

Mrs. Eu re Hyung Jin Nim- Minneapolis,
12-9-2015

In this segment Mrs. Eu describes how Father was supporting Hyung Jin Nim's actions as the leader of the Korean Church, but Mother was listening to the criticism of his "Buddhist" practices. Father believed in him, but Mother did not. Mrs. Eu says, "Father embraced Hyung Jin Nim, but Mother was different. Mother said, 'No.' "

I have confirmed with brothers and sisters in other states that Mrs. Eu made the same statement about Mother not agreeing with Father's view of Hyung Jin Nim.

If you think about it, this is incredibly revealing. Mother's rejection of Hyung Jin Nim was evident to Mrs. Eu and others long before Mother fired him, after Father's Seonghwa, from his positions as Korean church president and other responsibilities. Her disapproval of her youngest son was taking place AT THE VERY SAME TIME that Father insisted that Hyung Jin Nim along with his wife be crowned as True Parents' heirs and successors in 2008 and 2009, with a written proclamation that anyone opposing this appointment was a "heretic and destroyer" in 2010, and further statements by Father reaffirming this selection in 2011 and 2012.

"Father embraced Hyung Jin Nim,
but Mother was different.
Mother said, 'No.'"

Gil Ja Sa Eu, 12/9/2015

We all know that within weeks of Father's passing, Mother fired Hyung Jin Nim from all of his positions in Korea, but her opposition started long before. To put it simply, according to Mrs. Eu, Mother was NOT united with Father's selection of Hyung Jin Nim as his heir and successor going back MANY YEARS.

I know of a Korean sister who was serving in the Hannam-dong residence of True Parents in Seoul who was in tears when she saw portraits of True Parents being taken down after Father's Seonghwa and replaced with solo portraits of Mother by herself.

Theologians tell us we must believe that True Parents are absolutely "one." What happens when there is clear testimony from a respected elder who attended True Parents from the earliest days and who was married to the church president, that this was not the case? What do you do when the facts conflict with your deepest hopes and beliefs? Do you close your lying eyes and ears or OPEN them and deal with the painful truth?

"Hyung Jin is a mysterious man who can fit himself to any given atmosphere and introduce Heavenly Father. He can let family members feel something new, and he and his wife are a beautiful couple who can show the flower of profound minds anywhere in the world," and asked the participants to give Hyung Jin Nim a big hand. "Since satanic blood runs in our veins, the Messiah will drain out this satanic blood and engraft us to him. He will give us second birth and thus we shall no longer be Satan's sons and daughters. The Messiah's third purpose is to transform us into the people who can turn the devil into a servant and put him to work as a servant. In other words, the Messiah will come and make us qualified to subjugate Satan and punish him." CSG 196

"I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth." Psalm 34

Greetings!

In Sunday's fascinating service, Hyung Jin Nim discussed the current world situation. Although today's trendy "multiculturalism" teaches that "all religions are the same," there are very real differences. Western feminists love to attack Christian men for being "patriarchal," but Islamic Sharia law requires four male witnesses to confirm if a woman has been raped. How is that compatible with the Western legal system?

Protestant Christianity laid the foundation for the freedoms we enjoy. The Biblical story of Genesis portrays both men and women as created in the image of God. Women cannot "do it all" by themselves. Neither can men. The devil wants to take men out of their proper position to lead and protect their families with strength and love.

Followers of the Family Federation put a high priority on believing that "True Parents are One" and that unity is the most important. But unity centered on what? True Father put the highest priority on unity with God's will and perspective, not a horizontal "unity." When we unite with Father's words and will, unity centered on God will naturally come from that.

The belief that "True Parents are One," is contradicted by the fact that Mother currently is exercising her power to change or "veto" any of Father's legacies she chooses. In fact Mother is asserting her superiority to Father, in both word and deed. Mother asserted on October 24 that "all of heaven's providence is for the Only Begotten Daughter," which has no Biblical or Principled basis. Both the Bible and Principle refer repeatedly to the Second Coming of Christ as the "Bridegroom." How can the Bridegroom be a woman?

As discussed last week, Mrs. Eu in her FFWPU-sponsored tour, asserted that "True Parents are One," but then explained that "Father embraced Hyung Jin Nim, but Mother was different. Mother said, 'No!'"

True Parents are One?
"Father embraced Hyung Jin Nim,
but Mother was different.
Mother said, 'No.' "
Gil Ja Sa Eu, 12/9/2015

The painful truth is that Mother divorced Father in her heart. None of us are happy to consider this, but one of the gifts of the spirit (2 Cor 12) is to discern the difference between truth and falsehood, good and evil. As Father's words in the Cheon Seong Gyeong explain, the Messiah comes "to transform us into people who can turn the devil into a servant and put him to work as a servant."

Hyung Jin Nim ended the service by inviting brothers and sisters to join him in praising God. Praise is like prayer, giving us direct access to the spirit of God. The "weapon" of praise chases out the whispers of devil. We do not need hierarchies to connect to God. We should not "outsource" our eternal life to a medium or others with their own agendas. We should go to the word of God to confirm whether or not I'm being led in the right direction. God never leads us to self-worship, which is idolatry. We declare that as the children of God, we will no longer be slaves to fear.

Important Announcement:

True Father did not create the "Foundation Day" holy wine. It was fake and therefore everybody receiving it did not become one with True Parents, but with the false parent, Satan.

In order to return to the authority of the Lord of the Second Advent, the returning Jesus, True Father, the Son of God, and King of Kings, 1st Gen participants at "Foundation Day" in 2013 need to receive the true holy wine again from his heir and successor, the second king of CIG.

First Generation couples who receive the Holy Blessing for Returning to True Father's Authority through the couple anointed by True Parents, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim, in order to reverse the false "Foundation Day Blessing" of February 23, 2013, or reverse the false "Holy Wine" associated with this Blessing, are currently not asked to go through the 40-day separation and 3-day ceremony afterwards.

This will change after the February 13, 2016 Sanctuary Blessing. After that date, First Generation couples will still be able to return to True Father's authority, but only on the condition that they perform the 40-separation and 3-day ceremony following the Blessing.

Since the instruction in 2013 was for all Blessed Couples to take this "Holy Wine" and participate in the false "Foundation Day Blessing", we anticipate that the February 13, 2016 deadline will apply to almost all First Generation couples around the world.

Please help us get this information out to all Blessed Central Families around the world as quickly as possible. Tel: 570-832-4476
